Decision

Decision Date: December 06, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000022125

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, cost sharing reductions, or the Essential Plan, effective October 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On September 5, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared finding you eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective October 1, 2017.

Also on September 5, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the finding that you were not eligible for financial assistance.

On September 6, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective October 1, 2017. This notice stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid, or the Essential Plan because you did not meet the income limits or other eligibility standards, and you did not qualify for an advanced premium tax credit (APTC) because your income was over the allowable income limits for that program. That notice also stated that you might be able to enroll in coverage if you qualified for a Special enrollment period.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on September 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your September 5, 2017 request for a hearing.

On September 11, 2017, you submitted an updated application for financial assistance.

On September 12, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a full cost qualified health plan, effective October 1, 2017. This notice stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid, or the Essential Plan because you did not meet the income limits or other eligibility standards, and you did not qualify for APTC because your income was over the allowable income limits for that program.

On November 13, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open to November 28, 2017, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

As of the close of business on November 28, 2017, the Appeals Unit had not received any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on September 5, 2017 listed annual household income of $52,648.50 that you earned [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and as an [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) You testified that your employment [REDACTED] has now ended and your only source of income was from your position [REDACTED].
- 5) According to your NYSOH account, your attested income for the month of September 2017 was $1,864.00.

- 6) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 7) According to you NYSOH account and your testimony, you live in [REDACTED].
- 8) You testified that you have bills including rent, utilities, food, and other basic living expenses that you think should be considered in your application for financial assistance.
- 9) You testified that you cannot afford a qualified health plan at full cost at the present time.
- 10) You testified that you are looking for short term relief in purchasing health insurance and would like to be eligible for financial assistance.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036.).

For annual household income in the range greater than 400% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issues are whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for APTC, cost-sharing reductions and the Essential Plan, effective October 1, 2017.

The applications that were submitted on September 5, 2017 and September 11, 2017 listed an annual household income of $52,648.50 and the eligibility determinations relied upon that information.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your applications were correct. However, you asked that your current expenses, which include rent, utilities, food, and other basic living expenses, be considered when calculating your annual household income.

Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $52,648.50.

You are in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

APTC can be approved for individuals whose annual income does not exceed 400% of the applicable FPL. An annual income of $52,648.50 is 443.16% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household.

Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined in the September 6, 2017 and September 12, 2017 eligibility determination notices that you were not eligible for APTC because you were over the allowable income level for that program.

Cost-sharing reductions are only available to those who meet the requirements for APTC. Since you do not qualify for APTC, NYSOH correctly found that you were ineligible for cost-sharing reductions.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $52,648.50 is 443.16% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your September 5, 2017 and September 11, 2017 applications, the relevant 2017 FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $52,648.50 is 436.55% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

In your September 5, 2017 and September 11, 2017 applications for financial assistance you attested to $1,864.00 in monthly income for September 2017. The Hearing Officer held the record open until November 28, 2017 for you to submit income documentation to verify your income for the month of September 2017. As of the close of business on November 28, 2017, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the evidence that is in record as of that time.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the 2017 FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. You attested to $1,864.00 in monthly in September 2017 on the applications submitted on September 5, 2017 and September 11, 2017. As you have not provided any other documentation, the only evidence in the record is your attestation that you earned $1,864.00 in September 2017, which exceeds the monthly allowable income of $1,387.00 to be eligible for Medicaid.

Therefore, you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your September 5, 2017 and September 11, 2017 applications for financial assistance.

Since NYSOH properly determined that, based on the information you provided, you were not eligible for APTC, not eligible for cost-sharing reductions because you are not eligible for APTC, and not eligible for either the Essential Plan or Medicaid because you are over the income limits for all of those programs, the September 6, 2017 and September 12, 2017 eligibility determination notices are correct and are AFFIRMED.

Decision

The September 6, 2017 and September 12, 2017 eligibility determination notices are AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: December 06, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

NYSOH properly determined you were ineligible for APTC and cost-sharing reductions.

NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan and Medicaid.

The September 5, 2017 and September 12, 2017 eligibility determination notices properly determined that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost.
