Decision

Decision Date: December 15, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000022166

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid for June 1, 2017 through June 30, 2017?

Procedural History

On July 8, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance and indicated that you were seeking help for paying for medical bills for June 2017.

On July 9, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $0.00 per month premium. This eligibility was effective as of August 1, 2017.

On July 9, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan 2 with a $0.00 per month premium starting August 1, 2017.

On July 9, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid for June 1, 2017 through June 30, 2017 because the monthly household income of $1,906.67 is over the allowable monthly income limit of $1,868.00.

On August 29, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating you were eligible for Medicaid, effective August 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on September 6, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the July 9, 2017 eligibility determination notice insofar as it denied retroactive Medicaid for the month of June 2017.

On November 9, 2017, a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit contacted you and placed you under oath with the aid of a [REDACTED]. While under oath you testified you did not receive the notice of telephone hearing for the scheduled hearing date and time. An adjournment of the hearing was granted to November 21, 2017 at 3:00 p.m.

On November 21, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit with the aid of a [REDACTED]. The record was developed during the hearing held open up to December 6, 2017, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

As of December 6, 2017, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are seeking Medicaid from June 1, 2017 to June 30, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 federal income tax return as married filing jointly.
- 3) Your application on July 8, 2017 states you have no dependents.
- 4) You testified you will be claiming your wife's child as a dependent on your taxes for 2017.
- 5) You submitted an application for financial assistance on July 8, 2017.
- 6) Your application submitted on July 8, 2017, states that for the month of June 2017 your income was $1,906.67 and your wife's income was $0.00. You testified that amount was incorrect.
- 7) You testified you only received one check on June 24, 2017 from your employer. You also stated that you received $1,000.00 [REDACTED] that month. You were not sure how much the check was for.

- 8) You testified that you do not plan on taking any deductions on your tax return.
- 9) You reside in [REDACTED]

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4).

On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household and $20,420.00 for a three-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Retroactive Medicaid

The Department of Health must make Medicaid coverage start retroactively for up to three months prior to the month of an initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and the individual would have been eligible for Medicaid at the time he received the services if he had applied (42 USCA § 1396A(34); 42 CFR § 435.915(a)). The Department of Health may make eligibility effective for fee-for-service Medicaid on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid for June 1, 2017 through June 30, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Your application on July 8, 2017 states you are in a two-person household; you file your taxes with a tax filing status of married filing single, reside with your spouse, and claim no dependents on your tax return. However, during your hearing you testified you will be claiming your wife's child on your taxes as a dependent for 2017.

The application you submitted on July 8, 2017 requested help in paying for medical bills for June 1, 2017 to June 30, 2017.

When an individual files an initial application for Medicaid, his or her eligibility for retroactive Medicaid depends on the date of application. To this end, it does not matter whether or not that initial application resulted in Medicaid going forward. Instead, an individual, who has filed an initial application for Medicaid through NYSOH, has the right to be evaluated for Medicaid for the three months before the month of his or her application.

Medicaid coverage can be made effective retroactively for up to three months prior to an individual's initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and if they would have been eligible for Medicaid in those three months had they applied.

You testified that you are seeking Medicaid from June 1, 2017 to June 30, 2017.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid in June 2017, you would have needed to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,868.00 per month for a two-person household. There is no indication in the record that you would have been ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial criteria during June 2017.

The Hearing Officer allowed you time to submit income documentation showing the income you received in the month of June 2017. As of the close the record no documentation was received which would allow for an analysis of your monthly income and eligibility for June 2017.

Therefore, you failed to sufficiently establish facts that would permit a finding that NYSOH was incorrect in its determination based on the information you attested to in your application. As a result, the July 9, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The July 9, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: December 15, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are not eligible for Medicaid in the month of June 2017.

Your eligibility for Medicaid was effective as of August 1, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
