Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your child's enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective October 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On August 15, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your August 14, 2017 application, stating that your child was eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus with a $0.00 monthly premium, effective September 1, 2017. This notice also advised you that you needed to pick a health plan for your children and that you would receive written confirmation from NYSOH once a plan was selected.

On September 9, 2017, you enrolled your child in a Child Health Plus plan with a start date of October 1, 2017.

Also on September 9, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your child's Child Health Plus plan insofar as it did not begin September 1, 2017.

On November 28, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing only your child's eligibility.
- 2) You submitted a completed application to NYSOH for financial assistance on August 14, 2017.
- 3) You testified, and the record reflects, that you enrolled your child into a Child Health Plus plan on September 8, 2017.
- 4) You testified you first experienced issues with your NYSOH account when you were attempting to complete your application online on August 1 and 7, 2017.
- 5) You testified you called NYSOH on August 7, 2017 because your online account was showing your husband's Social Security Number was not correct when you entered it. You then called NYSOH to explain the number you provided was correct but was not allowing you to proceed with the application. The NYSOH representative told you to call the Social Security Administration and give it a day or two.
- 6) You testified there was no option to select a plan when you submitted your completed application on August 14, 2017.
- 7) You testified you were not aware you had to select a health plan when your application was submitted on August 14, 2017.
- 8) You testified you received a letter from your child's previous Child Health Plus plan stating that there was no coverage and called health plan and was alerted then that she had to pick a plan.
- 9) You testified that you need your child's Child Health Plus plan to begin on September 1, 2017 because you have medical bills for your child for that month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The “period of eligibility” for Child Health Plus is “that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date,” unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage” (42 CFR § 457.340(f)).

The State of New York has provided that a child’s period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see e.g. State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child’s enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective October 1, 2017.

The record supports you submitted a completed application to NYSOH on August 14, 2017 and enrolled your child into a Child Health Plus plan on September 8, 2017, for a start date of October 1, 2017.

The date on which a Child Health Plus plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected between the first day and fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month and the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Because you enrolled your child into a Child Health Plus plan on September 8, 2017, her plan would go into effect on the first day of the month following September, that is on October 1, 2017.

You testified you experienced difficulties with your online application while attempting to complete it on August 1, 2017. You then contacted NYSOH on August 7, 2017 to explain the difficulties you were experiencing, including not being able to complete the application and submit your husband's Social Security Number. The representative told you to call the Social Security Administration, but you believed the number was correct. You were then told to wait a few days and resubmit the application. The record supports a completed application was submitted on August 14, 2017. No enrollment was submitted on this date because you explained you did not know you needed to select a health plan for your child, and were not provided an option to select a health plan.

When a completed application is made and an eligibility determination is provided both in preliminary determinations and in the notices issued after those determinations are made, NYSOH specifies that an individual may select a plan at that time. The record shows in your account the preliminary determination prepared on August 14, 2017 states your daughter may enroll in a health plan. The notice issued after that determination on August 15, 2017 also states you may pick a health plan.

Since there is no indication that you experienced technical difficulties with your application once it was completed, that would have delayed your child's enrollment in a plan at that time, it is determined the September 10, 2017, enrollment confirmation notice stating that your child's enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective October 1, 2017, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.
