Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your enrollment in a qualified health plan was effective July 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On May 27, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On May 28, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective July 1, 2017. The notice stated that you must confirm your health plan select by August 30, 2017.

Also on June 13, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective August 1, 2017.

On July 17, 2017, NYSOH backdated your coverage in your qualified health plan to July 1, 2017.

On September 13, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the backdate of your qualified health plan insofar as you no longer wanted coverage for the month of July 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 8, 2017, you and your spouse had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You submitted an application to NYSOH on May 27, 2017.
- 2) You selected a qualified health plan for yourself on June 12, 2017.
- 3) Your enrollment in the plan became effective August 1, 2017.
- 4) You testified that you requested for your coverage to begin on July 1, 2017.
- 5) The record reflects that NYSOH submitted a request to backdate your coverage to July 1, 2017 on July 18, 2017.
- 6) The record does not contain a notice confirming the July 1, 2017 start date of your qualified health plan.
- 7) You testified that you received a call from NYSOH on July 18, 2017 informing you of the backdate but when you called your insurance plan they stated that they did not have information on the backdate.
- 8) You testified that you called your insurance plan on July 28, 2017 and they were still not aware of the July 2017 backdate.
- 9) You testified that you were required to pay the full premium for July 2017, even though you were unable to use the coverage.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

The effective date of coverage by a qualified health plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i)). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Termination of a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to terminate his or her coverage with a qualified health plan coverage, with appropriate notice to the NYSOH or qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(1)(i)).

For enrollee-initiated terminations, the last day of coverage is either:

- 1) The termination date specified by the enrollee, if the enrollee provides reasonable notice (at least 14 days before the requested termination date);
- 2) Fourteen days after the enrollee requests the termination, if they do not provide reasonable notice; or
- 3) On a date on or after the date the enrollee requests the termination, if the enrollee's qualified health plan issuer and the enrollee agree to such a date

(45 CFR § 155.430(d)(2)(i)-(iii)).

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to retroactively terminate or cancel their enrollment in a qualified health plan if:

- 1) The enrollee demonstrates that they attempted to terminate their coverage and experienced a technical error that did not allow the coverage to be terminated, and requests retroactive termination within 60 days after they discovered the technical error.
- 2) The enrollment in the qualified health plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH or HHS, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Such enrollee must request cancellation within 60 days of discovering the unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous enrollment.
- 3) The enrollee was enrolled in a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by any third party, including third parties who have no connection with the Exchange, and requests cancellation within 60 days of discovering of the enrollment.

(45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(iv)(A-C)).

NYSOH permits a qualified health plan to terminate an individual's coverage if (1) the enrollee is no longer eligible for coverage or (2) non-payment of the premiums by the enrollee (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(i)-(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in a qualified health plan was effective July 1, 2017.

On June 12, 2017, submitted a request to enroll in a qualified health plan. On June 13, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective August 1, 2017.

You testified that when you became aware of the August 1, 2017 start date, you requested that NYSOH backdate your qualified health plan to July 1, 2017.

You testified that you received a call from NYSOH on July 18, 2017 advising you that you that you had been granted a backdate of coverage in your qualified health plan for the month of July 2017. You testified that you called your qualified health plan on July 18, 2017 and on July 28, 2017 but they were not aware that NYSOH had backdated your coverage for the month of July 2017. As a result, you were later informed that you needed to pay for the month of July 2017 even though you were unable to use the coverage.

A review of the complete record confirms that NYSOH did not timely make a determination regarding your request for a backdate and/or that you were not timely notified of the back date of your qualified health plan to July 1, 2017, which deprived you of any significant value in having coverage for July 2017 retroactively applied. Given how late in the month this determination was made, NYSOH should have offered you the opportunity to decline the back date before putting it in effect. Furthermore, NYSOH failed to issue a written notice to you confirming that your plan had in fact been backdated to July 1, 2017.

The only enrollment notice contained in the record prior to the filing of your appeal is the June 13, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice, stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective August 1, 2017.

Therefore, the June 13, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED and your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to disenroll you from coverage for the month of July 2017 and to reinstate the start date of your qualified health plan to August 1, 2017.
