Decision

Decision Date: December 12, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000022420

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly terminate your and your spouse's Essential Plan for non-payment of premium effective, July 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that your and your spouse's reenrollment in the Essential Plan was effective October 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On May 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2017.

Also on May 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your and your spouse's enrollment in an Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2017.

On July 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your and your spouse's enrollment in your Essential Plan was terminated, effective July 1, 2017 because a premium payment had not been received by the health plan.

On September 14, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan and you selected a plan for enrollment.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on September 14, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your and your spouse's Essential Plan.

On September 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your September 14, 2017 application, stating that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective October 1, 2017.

Also on September 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation, based on your plan selection on September 14, 2017, stating that you and your spouse were enrolled in an Essential Plan, effective October 1, 2017.

On November 15, 2017, you were scheduled for a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. That day, you requested that your hearing be adjourned to a later date and the Hearing Officer granted your request.

On November 17, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are seeking to have your and your spouse's reenrollment in the Essential Plan effective as of September 1, 2017.
- 2) You and your spouse were originally enrolled into an Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2017.
- 3) You testified that you thought you had your and your spouse's Essential Plan premium payment set up as an auto-pay since the day you set up your plan they took your bank account information.
- 4) You and your spouse were disenrolled from your Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2017 for non-payment.
- 5) You testified that you became aware that you and your spouse had been disenrolled from your Essential Plan in September 2017 when you went to the doctor's office.
- 6) You testified that when you became aware that you and your spouse had been disenrolled you contacted NYSOH to reenroll.

- 7) On September 14, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application and Essential Plan selection.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your and your spouse's Essential Plan for non-payment of premium effective, July 1, 2017.

You and your spouse were originally enrolled into an Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

You testified that you thought you had your Essential Plan premium payment set up as an auto-pay since the day you set up your plan they took your bank account information.

On July 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you and your spouse were disenrolled from your Essential Plan for non-payment of premiums, effective July 1, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you and your spouse were properly terminated from your Essential Plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the July 15, 2017 notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your and your spouse's reenrollment in your Essential Plan was effective October 1, 2017.

You contacted NYSOH on September 14, 2017 to reenroll into an Essential Plan.

The date on which an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected between the first day and fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month and the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

As you contacted NYSOH to reenroll into an Essential Plan on September 14, 2017, your and your spouse's reenrollment should have taken effect the first day of the next following month after September; that is, on October 1, 2017.

Therefore, the September 15, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice stating that your and your spouse's reenrollment in your Essential Plan was effective October 1, 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the insurer's termination of your and your spouse's enrollment in the Essential Plan for non-payment of premiums, effective July 1, 2017, is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The September 15, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED.
