Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $144.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective November 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On October 8, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating in part, that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan effective November 1, 2016. You were subsequently enrolled in Essential Plan 1 Plus Vision and Dental with a $47.60 monthly premium.

On September 18, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared finding you eligible to receive up to $144.00 in APTC, effective November 1, 2017.

Also on September 18, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the determination that you were eligible for APTC and not eligible for the Essential Plan.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On September 19, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the September 18, 2017 application, stating in part that you were eligible to receive up to $144.00 in APTC, effective November 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid or the Essential Plan because your income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On September 21, 2017, you were granted Aid-To-Continue pending a decision on your appeal. You were re-enrolled in your Essential Plan 1 Plus Vision and Dental with a $47.60 monthly premium with an enrollment start date of November 1, 2017.

On November 13, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of Head of Household (with qualifying individual). You will claim one dependent on that tax return.
- 2) You testified that you are only seeking to have your eligibility for financial assistance redetermined. You testified that this appeal does not involve your dependent child's eligibility for Child Health Plus.
- 3) The updated application that was submitted on September 18, 2017 listed annual household income of $42,900.00, consisting of salary you earn from your employment as an office manager. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 5) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED]
- 6) You testified that even with $144.00 of APTC, health insurance is unaffordable because of the high living expenses you have including rent, school tuition for your [REDACTED], food, utilities, and transportation. You testified that you think these expenses should be considered to give an accurate reflection of the allowable financial assistance.
- 7) You testified that you want to be reconsidered for the Essential Plan.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Tuition and Fees Deduction

“Adjusted gross income” is the gross income of the taxpayer minus the deductions permitted (26 USC § 62). Subject to some limitations, tuition and fees for a dependent’s higher education paid by the tax payer to a qualified educational institution can be deducted from adjusted gross income in an amount up to $4,000.00, provided the tax payer’s yearly income does not exceed $80,000.00 for a single individual or $160,000.00 if married filing jointly. This deduction was renewed by Congress in December 2014 and made retroactive to the 2014 tax year and extended to December 31, 2017 (26 USC § 222(e); see IRS Publication 970).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Federal Register 4036.).

For annual household income in the range of at least 250% but less than 300% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution in 2017 is between 8.21% and 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $144.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on September 18, 2017 listed an annual household income of $42,900.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

During the hearing, you testified that the $42,900.00 amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you asked that your current expenses, which include rent, school tuition for your [REDACTED], food, utilities, transportation and other living expenses, be considered when calculating your annual household income.

Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses such as rent, utilities, cable and phone to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Similarly, since the school tuition for your [REDACTED] appears not to be for higher education, it cannot be deducted when computing modified adjusted gross income. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $42,900.00.

You are in a two-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you expect to file your 2017 income taxes as Head of Household (with qualifying individual) and will claim one dependent on that tax return.

You reside in [REDACTED] where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $42,900.00 is 267.79% of the 2016 FPL for a two-person household. At 267.79% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium in 2017 is 8.74% of income, or $312.45 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($312.45 per month), which equals $144.01 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $144.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $42,900.00 is 267.79% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan, effective November 1, 2017.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,020.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $42,900.00 is 267.79% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the September 19, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $144.00 per month in APTC, ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The September 19, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: December 06, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Effective November 1, 2017, you were eligible for up to $144.00 in APTC per month.
