Decision

Decision Date: December 26, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000022568

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $168.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective October 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On August 3, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating, that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan effective October 1, 2016. You were subsequently enrolled in Essential Plan 1 with a $20.00 monthly premium with a plan enrollment start date of October 1, 2016.

On August 22, 2017, you submitted an updated application for financial assistance.

On August 23, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to $168.00 in APTC, effective October 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid or the Essential Plan because your income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On September 19, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that determination insofar as you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

On September 27, 2017, you were granted Aid-To-Continue pending a decision on your appeal. You were re-enrolled in your Essential Plan 1 with a $20.00 monthly premium with an enrollment start date of October 1, 2017.

On December 1, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) The updated application that was submitted on August 22, 2017 listed annual household income of $36,400.01, consisting of an annual salary you earn from your employment. You testified that your annual income of $36,400.01 was correct.
- 4) Your August 22, 2017 application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 5) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you live in Westchester County, New York.
- 6) According to your NYSOH account, you were granted Aid-To-Continue and you were re-enrolled into your Essential Plan 1 with a $20.00 monthly premium with a plan enrollment start date of October 1, 2017.
- 7) You testified that even with $186.00 of monthly APTC, health insurance is unaffordable because of the large deductible on the health insurance and the high living expenses in Westchester County including rent, student loan payments, food, utilities and car insurance. You testified that you think these expenses should be considered to give an accurate reflection of the allowable financial assistance.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 8) You testified that you want to be reconsidered for the Essential Plan for $20.00 a month which you can afford.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a QHP and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NYSOH in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), IRS Revenue Procedure (RP) 2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the applicable FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,800.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 300% but less than 400% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS RP 2016-24).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they can claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (id.).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $168.00 per month in APTC.

The application that was submitted on August 22, 2017 listed an annual household income of $36,400.01 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you asked that your high living expenses of living in Westchester County, which include rent, student loan payments, food, utilities and car insurance. You testified that you think these expenses should be considered to give an accurate reflection of the allowable financial assistance.

Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses such as rent, utilities, cable and phone to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $36,400.01.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in Westchester County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $461.49 per month.

An annual income of $36,400.01 is 306.40% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 306.40% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 9.69% of income, or $293.93 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($461.49 per month) minus your expected contribution ($293.93 per month), which equals $167.56 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $168.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $36,400.00 is 306.40% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan, effective October 1, 2017.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $36,400.01 is 306.40% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the August 23, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $168.00 per month in APTC, ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
