Decision

Decision Date: December 20, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000023073

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Does the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health (NYSOH) have the authority to review whether you were properly disenrolled from your qualified health plan (QHP) for nonpayment of premiums, effective August 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On July 13, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.

On July 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your July 13, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost, effective August 1, 2017.

Also on July 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, based on your July 13, 2017 plan selection, stating that you were enrolled in a bronze-level qualified health plan, with a $358.71 monthly premium, effective August 1, 2017.

On August 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating that your enrollment in your bronze-level qualified health plan was terminated, effective

August 1, 2017, because a premium payment had not been received by the health plan by the payment deadline.

On October 3, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective November 1, 2017. You attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan but were unable to select a plan for enrollment.

Also on October 3, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On October 4, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the October 3, 2017 application for financial assistance, stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective November 1, 2017. It further stated that you might be able to enroll in coverage if you qualify for a special enrollment period.

Also on October 4, 2017, NYSOH issued an appeal confirmation notice stating that the reason for your appeal was "Denial of Special Enrollment Period (SEP)."

On November 29, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open up to December 14, 2017, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

As of the close of business on December 14, 2017, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account, you are married but separated from your spouse.
- 3) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you intend to file your 2017 taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that return.
- 4) You testified that you are in the process of obtaining a divorce but it is not yet finalized.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 5) According to your NYSOH account, you updated your account on July 13, 2017 and were determined eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost.
- 6) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, on July 13, 2017, you enrolled in a bronze-level qualified health plan with a plan enrollment start date of August 1, 2017.
- 7) You testified that you did not know you were required to make a premium payment because you never received a bill from the health plan.
- 8) You testified that you did not know your health plan was terminated until you went to the pharmacy to obtain a prescription and you were informed that you did not have health insurance.
- 9) According to your NYSOH account, you were disenrolled from your bronze-level qualified health plan, effective August 1, 2017.
- 10) On October 3, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to reenroll into a qualified health plan, but were unable to do so.
- 11) You testified that since filing your application on July 13, 2017 there have been no other major changes to your household.
- 12) You testified that you would like to be granted a special enrollment period because you incurred medical expenses during the period you have been without health insurance.
- 13) According to your NYSOH account, you reside in [REDACTED] New York.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
  - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
  - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
  - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
  - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b))

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether the Appeals Unit of NYSOH has the authority to review whether you were properly disenrolled from your QHP for nonpayment of premiums, effective August 1, 2017.

On August 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective August 1, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination, and (4) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether you were properly disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the August 16, 2017 cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On October 3, 2017, you submitted a request to reenroll in a qualified health plan.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

In the present case, there is no evidence in the record to establish grounds for a special enrollment period. A change in marital status would qualify as a triggering event. However, you testified that you are separated from your spouse and you are in the process of obtain a divorce, but it is not yet finalized. You further testified that there have been no changes to your household in 2017.

Although you did lose health coverage because of the August 16, 2017 disenrollment notice that was effective August 1, 2017, the loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums which NYSOH considers a voluntary action causing the termination of your coverage.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you did not experience a triggering event that would qualify you for a special enrollment period as of the date of the hearing.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the August 16, 2017, cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.
