Decision

Decision Date: January 19, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000023339

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Does the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health (NYSOH) have the authority to review the cancellation of coverage for your child for a purported non-payment of premiums?

Did NYSOH properly determine that your child's reenrollment in a Child Health Plus plan was effective November 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On June 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, stating that your child was eligible to enroll in a full cost Child Health Plus plan, effective July 1, 2017.

Also on June 16, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with a monthly premium of $218.53, effective July 1, 2017.

On October 9, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your child's coverage in his Child Health Plus plan ended effective September 30, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

NYSOH records reflect that you updated your account and selected a Child Health Plus plan for your child on October 13, 2017. On that date, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared regarding that application, stating that your child was eligible for a Child Health Plus plan, effective November 1, 2017.

Also on October 13, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your child's Child Health Plus plan insofar as it did not begin October 1, 2017.

On October 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on October 13, 2017, stating that your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan effective November 1, 2017.

On December 14, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing your child's Child Health Plus plan disenrollment effective September 30, 2017 and their Child Health Plus plan re-enrollment date of November 1, 2017.
- 2) NYSOH records reflect that your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with an effective start date of July 1, 2017.
- 3) You testified that you received an invoice from your insurance carrier for October 2017 but that your premium payment was made late.
- 4) Your child was disenrolled from his Child Health Plus plan, effective October 1, 2017 for non-payment of premiums.
- 5) You applied to NYSOH for financial assistance with health insurance for your child and he was determined eligible for a Child Health Plus plan on October 13, 2017.
- 6) You testified, and NYSOH records reflect, that you enrolled your child into a Child Health Plus plan on October 13, 2017.
- 7) Your child's Child Health Plus plan start date was November 1, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking coverage for your child for the month of October 2017 because you incurred medical bills during October 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Child Health Plus

The “period of eligibility” for Child Health Plus is “that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date,” unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage” (42 CFR § 457.340(f)).

The State of New York has provided that a child’s period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see e.g. State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether the Appeals Unit of NYSOH has the authority to review the cancellation of coverage for your child for a purported non-payment of premiums.

The Appeals Unit of NYSOH only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination, and (4) a denial of a for a special enrollment period.

Because the Appeals Unit is not authorized to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether your child was properly terminated for nonpayment of premiums.

Therefore, your appeal of the October 9, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child's enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan was effective November 1, 2017.

You testified, and NYSOH records indicate, that you updated your NYSOH application on October 13, 2017. As a result, your child was found eligible for a Child Health Plus plan on October 13, 2017 and you selected a plan that day.

The date on which enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

On October 13, 2017, you selected a Child Health Plus plan, so your child's enrollment properly took effect on the first day of the following month; that is, on November 1, 2017.

Therefore, the October 16, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice stating that your child's enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan was effective November 1, 2017, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.

Decision

The October 16, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: January 19, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This decision does not change your child's eligibility.

The effective date of your child's Child Health Plus plan is November 1, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your appeal was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
