Decision

Decision Date: February 09, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000023428

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your newborn child's enrollment in his Medicaid Managed Care (MMC) plan was effective no earlier than November 1, 2017?

Procedural History

According to your NYSOH account, you updated your account on September 27, 2017, and your newborn child (child) was found eligible for Medicaid as of September 1, 2017.

On September 28, 2017, a plan enrollment notice was issued, based on your September 27, 2017 plan selection, confirming your child's enrollment in his MMC plan, effective November 1, 2017.

On October 17, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your child's enrollment in their MMC plan insofar as it did not begin on September 1, 2017.

On February 7, 2018, your spouse appeared on your behalf at a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and your spouse's testimony, your spouse updated your account on September 27, 2017 and your child was found eligible for Medicaid and enrolled in an MMC plan that day. His MMC plan was effective November 1, 2017.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account and your spouse's testimony, your child was born on [REDACTED].
- 3) Your spouse testified that she wants your child's MMC plan to begin on September 1, 2017, because she has uncovered medical bills from [REDACTED].

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid

An individual is eligible for fee-for-service Medicaid effective on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b), Medicaid Eligibility Changes under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010, 13ADM-03(III)(F)).

Medicaid Managed Care plan enrollments received on or before the fifteenth day of the month are effective the first day of the following month. Enrollments received after the fifteenth day of the month are effective the first day of the second following month (Medicaid Managed Care Model Contract (Appendix H-6(b)(ii) & (iii), effective 3/1/2014 – 2/28/2019; see 42 USC § 1315; § 364-j(1)(c); 18 NYCRR § 360-10.3(h), Medicaid Eligibility Changes under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010, 13ADM-03(III)(F)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child's enrollment in their MMC plan was effective no earlier than November 1, 2017.

According to your NYSOH account and your spouse's testimony, your spouse updated your account on September 27, 2017 and your child was found eligible for Medicaid and enrolled in an MMC plan that day. His MMC plan was effective November 1, 2017.

The date on which a MMC plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month will go into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected on or after the sixteenth day of the month will go into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since your child's MMC plan was selected on September 27, 2017, their plan properly took effect on the first day of the second month following September 2017; that is, on November 1, 2017.

Therefore, the September 28, 2017 plan enrollment notice confirming that your child's enrollment in their MMC plan would be effective November 1, 2017, was correct and must be AFFIRMED.
