Decision

Decision Date: January 2, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000023509

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse were ineligible for Medicaid as of October 20, 2017?

Procedural History

On October 19, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance through NYSOH.

Also on October 19, 2017, you spoke with NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you and your spouse were ineligible for Medicaid.

On October 20, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating in part that you and your spouse were ineligible for Medicaid because your household income exceeded the income limit for that program.

On December 27, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Testimony was taken and the record was fully developed during the hearing. The record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 1) According to your October 19, 2017 application and testimony, you are applying for health insurance for yourself and your spouse.
- 2) According to your October 19, 2017 application, you expected to file a 2017 federal income tax return with the tax status of married filing jointly, and expected to claim four dependents on that return.
- 3) You testified that you only expect to claim your three grandchildren as dependents on your 2017 federal income tax return.
- 4) According your NYSOH account, you reside in Onondaga County, New York.
- 5) You testified that your household's only source of income is from your spouse's employment at [REDACTED].
- 6) You testified that your spouse was issued gross income of:
 - (a) $1,121.00 on October 10, 2017;
 - (b) $1,158.00 on October 17, 2017;
 - (c) $1,329.00 on October 24, 2017;
 - (d) $1,376.00 on October 31, 2017.
- 7) According to your NYSOH account, you did not expect to claim any deductions on your 2017 federal income tax return.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

"Adjusted gross income" means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)).

Household Composition

For Medicaid purposes, “family size” means the number of persons counted as members of an individual's household. The household of a taxpayer who expects to file a return, and does not expect to be claimed as a tax dependent by anyone else, consists of the taxpayer plus all people the taxpayer expects to claim as tax dependents (42 CFR § 435.603(f)(1)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which at 100% of the FPL is $28,780.00 for a five-person household and $32,960.00 for a six-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you and your spouse to be ineligible for Medicaid as of October 20, 2017.

You testified that you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return, with the tax status of married filing jointly, and expected to claim your three grandchildren as dependents on that tax return. Therefore, you are in a five-person household.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $28,780.00 for a five-person household and $32,960.00 for a six-person household.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid, you and your spouse would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $3,310.00 per month for a five-person household, and $3,791.00 per month for a six-person household.

The record reflects that your spouse was issued gross income of: $1,121.00 on October 10, 2017; $1,158.00 on October 17, 2017; $1,329.00 on October 24, 2017, and $1,376.00 on October 31, 2017. Based on the available record, your household's October 2017 income was at least $4,984.00. Therefore, your and your spouse's monthly household income exceeded the Medicaid income threshold of $3,310.00 per month for a five-person household.

The same outcome is true using a six-person household since, on your October 19, 2017 application, you listed that you and your spouse would be claiming four dependents on your 2017 federal tax return. To be eligible for Medicaid, your household income could be no greater than 138% of the applicable FPL, which is $3,791.00 per month for a six-person household. Therefore, your and your spouse's monthly household income also exceeded the Medicaid income threshold of $3,791.00 per month for a six-person household.

Based on the foregoing findings, the October 20, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that you and your spouse were ineligible for Medicaid. Therefore, it is correct and AFFIRMED.

Decision

The October 20, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: January 2, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You and your spouse were properly determined ineligible for Medicaid.
