Decision

Decision Date: December 15, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000023575

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective December 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On October 20, 2017, you applied to NYSOH for financial assistance with your health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared, stating that you were not eligible for financial assistance.

Also on October 20, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not found eligible for the Essential Plan. You were found eligible for "Aid to Continue" during the pendency of the appeal, so you were reenrolled in the Essential Plan for a limited time.

On October 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the October 20, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan (QHP) at full cost, effective December 1, 2017. That notice

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

also stated that you were not eligible for an advance premium tax credit (APTC), cost-sharing reductions (CSR) or the Essential Plan because your household income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On December 11, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself only.
- 3) The application that was submitted on October 20, 2017, listed annual household income of $52,552.00, consisting of $16.00 per hour you earn from your employment with [REDACTED] over a 40-hour work week, and $1,606.00 per month you receive in pension income from the [REDACTED]. You testified that these income amounts were correct.
- 4) You testified, and your application reflects, that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 5) You live in [REDACTED].
- 6) You testified that the health plans available to you are unaffordable due, in part, to your household expenses including your rent, utilities and credit card bills.
- 7) You testified that you were seeking to be found eligible for the Essential Plan, since you were temporarily enrolled in that plan at a $20.00 monthly premium earlier this plan year.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a QHP and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the applicable FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to receive APTC.

The application that was submitted on October 20, 2017 listed an annual household income of $52,552.00, consisting of $16.00 per hour you earn from your employment with [REDACTED] over a 40-hour work week, and $1,606.00 per month you receive in pension income from the [REDACTED]. The eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

An APTC is available through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is effectively greater than 200% and no greater than 400% of the applicable FPL.

An annual income of $52,552.00 is 442.36% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 442.36% of the FPL, NYSOH properly determined that your income exceeded 400% of the FPL, and that you were not eligible for APTC based on the information you provided to NYSOH.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for CSR

As a threshold matter, CSR is available to a person who is eligible to receive APTC. Since it was determined that you were over-income for and not eligible to receive APTC, NYSOH also properly determined that you were not eligible for CSR.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $52,552.00 is 442.36% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you not eligible for the Essential Plan.

Because the October 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were not eligible for APTC, not eligible for CSR and not eligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The October 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: December 15, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were eligible to enroll in a QHP at full-cost, effective December 1, 2017.

You were not eligible for APTC or CSR.

You were not eligible for the Essential Plan, and your limited enrollment in that coverage will end.

This decision relates to your eligibility for financial assistance for 2017 ONLY. You must update your NYSOH application to find out your eligibility for financial assistance for 2018. Your application and enrollment in a plan must be completed by December 15, 2017 for any changes to be in effect for January 1, 2018. Open enrollment for 2018 coverage ends on January 31, 2018.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your appeal was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:

- By calling the Customer Service Center at 1-800-318-2596
- By mail at:
Health Insurance Marketplace
