Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your enrollment in an Essential Plan was effective November 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On September 22, 2017, NYSOH received your initial application for financial assistance with health insurance. In response to this application, NYSOH prepared a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective November 1, 2017.

Also on September 23, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice, based on your plan selection on September 22, 2017, stating that you were enrolled in an Essential Plan, and that your plan would start November 1, 2017.

On October 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your September 22, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective November 1, 2017.

On October 25, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your enrollment in the Essential Plan insofar as it did not begin October 1, 2017.

On January 9, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. At your request, [REDACTED]

██████) also attended the hearing. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You submitted your initial application to NYSOH for financial assistance with health insurance on September 22, 2017.
- 2) The record reflects that you enrolled in an Essential Plan on September 22, 2017.
- 3) You testified that you wanted your enrollment in an Essential Plan to begin on October 1, 2017 because you incurred significant medical bills during the month of October 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective November 1, 2017.

Your NYSOH account reflect that you submitted your initial NYSOH application on September 22, 2017. As a result, you were found eligible for the Essential Plan as of September 22, 2017 and selected a plan that day.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

On September 22, 2017, you selected an Essential Plan, so your enrollment properly took effect on the first day of the second month following September 22, 2017; that is, on November 1, 2017.

Therefore, the September 23, 2017 enrollment notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective November 1, 2017, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.
