Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NY State of Health as of December 1, 2017 because you are not considered lawfully present in the country, and because you are over the income limit for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On November 2, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance. Based on your application, NYSOH initially prepared a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective December 1, 2017. You also selected an Essential Plan for enrollment, which would begin on December 1, 2017.

That same day, NYSOH received a copy of your I-766 Employment Authorization Card reflecting a category code of "C33." This document was reviewed and verified that same day as valid proof of your immigration status.

Also on November 2, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility and prepared a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you were not eligible to purchase health care coverage through NYSOH. That same day, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of that eligibility determination, insofar as you were not eligible for coverage through NYSOH.

On November 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a discontinuance notice, stating that, effective December 1, 2017, you were no longer eligible for health insurance through NYSOH. The notice stated that you did not qualify for Medicaid because your household income was over the allowable income limit, and you did not qualify for the Essential Plan, or to enroll in a qualified health plan, because verification documentation showed that you were not lawfully present.

On December 28, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your application indicates that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a status of single and you will claim no dependents on that tax return, and you confirmed this in your testimony.
- 2) Your application states you are an immigrant non-citizen.
- 3) You uploaded a copy of your Employment Authorization card on November 2, 2017, with the status of C-33, which was verified that same day.
- 4) The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) references a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals.
- 5) The application that was submitted on November 2, 2017, which requested financial assistance, listed annual household income of $23,173.80, consisting of income you earn from employment. You testified that this amount was correct at the time.
- 6) You testified that you earn $13.00 an hour, and work 37-38 hours per week, which equates to $1,924.00 per month, at 37 hours.
- 7) You testified that your income in the month of November would have been in keeping with your average income in other months, and that $1,900.00 sounded correct.
- 8) You testified that you are here legally, and that you believe you should be eligible for health insurance coverage.

9) You testified that you cannot afford to pay for medical expenses out of pocket, and that you do not want to have a tax penalty for not having insurance.

10) Your application states that you live in Nassau County.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the federal poverty level (FPL), (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

Qualified Immigrants Transitioned to the Essential Plan

In New York State, qualified immigrants who were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 19, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf>).

Medicaid

A person who meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard is eligible for Medicaid benefits (45 CFR § 155.305(c)). One of the non-financial criteria for Medicaid eligibility is the immigration status of the person applying for health insurance. A person is eligible for Medicaid when his or her immigration status is satisfactory and he or she meets all other requirements for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one0person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Qualified Health Plan

To enroll in a qualified health plan through the Marketplace, an applicant must be a citizen or national of the United States or a non-citizen who is lawfully present in the United States and reasonably expects to become a citizen or remain a lawfully present noncitizen for the entire period for which enrollment is being sought (45 CFR § 155.305(a)(1)).

Immigration Status

Generally, no person except a United States citizen, a naturalized citizen, a qualified alien, and persons permanently residing in the United States under color of law (PRUCOL), is eligible for medical assistance from the state (NY Social Services Law § 122(1); 18 NYCRR § 360-3.2(j)).

A PRUCOL alien is a person who is residing in the United States with the knowledge and permission or acquiescence of the federal immigration agency and whose departure from the United States such agency does not contemplate enforcing (18 NYCRR §360-3.2(j)). The New York Department of Health regards aliens who have been issued an Employment Authorization Document (I-688B or I-766), and have the requisite category code, to be PRUCOL (08 OHIP/INF-4, dated August 4, 2008).

The guide, “Key to I-766/I-688B, Employment Authorization Documents (EADs)”, defines certain codes on the USCIS Employment Authorization Documents” (08 MA/033, dated December 1, 2008, and as amended). It confirms that a person who has category code of “(c)(33)” has PRUCOL status for Medicaid and Child Health Plus only (id.).

Legal Analysis

The only issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH as of December 1, 2017 because you are not considered lawfully present, and because you are over income for Medicaid.

On November 2, 2017, NYSOH prepared a preliminary eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective December 1, 2017. Your eligibility was contingent on you providing documentation of your immigration status.

Also on November 2, 2017, you provided to NYSOH a copy of your I-766 EAC. That same day, this information was verified and NYSOH updated your application. That application listed an annual household income of $23,173.80, and reflected that you were an immigrant non-citizen.

As a result, NYSOH issued a discontinuance notice stating that you were not qualified to enroll in coverage through NYSOH because the documentation you provided showed that you were not lawfully present, and that you were not eligible for Medicaid because your income was over the allowable income limit.

Your employment authorization documentation states you are an immigrant non-citizen with a C-33 status. The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) refers to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals. Individuals who have obtained an Employment Authorization card with the status of C-33 category are persons considered not “lawfully present” for purposes of the federal definition, and are therefore not recognized as eligible to receive federal funding under those programs.

In addition, while individuals who have been determined to be qualified aliens and were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016, this is not the case for persons who received Deferred Action status.

Therefore, NYSOH was correct in finding you not eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan.

However, NY State has consistently recognized persons with Deferred Action status within the accepted meaning of “PRUCOL alien”; even though the federal government has not. The New York Court of Appeals ruled, in Aliessa, et al. v. Novello (96 NY 2d 418 [2001]), that New York must provide state-funded Medicaid to the lawfully residing immigrants who had been excluded from access to the federal Medicaid program.

Since your current Deferred Action status does confer PRUCOL status for individuals seeking Medicaid eligibility, we may review whether you met the financial criteria for Medicaid.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your applications, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $23,173.80 is 192.15% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid can also be based on current monthly household income and family size.

During the hearing, you were asked if you wanted to provide documentation of your monthly income for November 2017. You testified that your income in November 2017 was the same as any other average month, which, at $13.00 an hour for 37 hours per week equates to $1,924.00. You also declined to provide any further documentation. Therefore, based on your testimony, your income for November 2017 was approximately $1,924.00.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,367.00 per month. Since, according to your testimony, you earned approximately $1,924.00 in November 2017, you do not qualify for Medicaid based on monthly income as of the date of your application.

Finally, federal regulations require that a person seeking enrollment in a qualified health plan through NYSOH have United States citizenship or satisfactory or immigration status. Under the federal regulations, individuals with Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals status are not considered to be lawfully present for the purposes of obtaining coverage in a qualified health plan through NYSOH.

Accordingly, the November 3, 2017 discontinuance notice properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan or to enroll in a qualified health plan, based on your status as not "lawfully present." Additionally, the notice properly stated that you were ineligible for Medicaid, based on your annual household income being over the limit for that program.
