Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Was enrollment in your child's Child Health Plus plan properly terminated effective August 31, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline?

Did New York State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with an enrollment start date of December 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that your child was eligible for Child Health Plus, with a $30.00 monthly premium, effective as of January 1, 2017.

Also on December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming that as of December 15, 2016, your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with an enrollment start date of January 1, 2017.

On September 13, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your child's Child Health Plus coverage would end on August 31, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On November 1, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that your child was eligible for Child Health Plus, with a $30.00 monthly premium, effective as of December 1, 2017.

On November 3, 2017, you spoke with NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as your child was not enrolled in health insurance coverage from September 1, 2017, through November 30, 2017.

On November 4, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that as of November 3, 2017, your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with an enrollment start date of December 1, 2017.

On February 1, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Testimony was taken during the hearing and the record was fully developed. The record closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you want your child to enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan from September 1, 2017, through November 30, 2017.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account, your child was continuously enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan from January 1, 2016, through August 31, 2017.
- 3) According to your NYSOH account, on September 12, 2017, the plan initiated termination of your child's health insurance coverage.
- 4) On September 13, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Child Health Plus coverage would end on August 31, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline (see Document [REDACTED]).
- 5) According to your NYSOH account, on November 3, 2017, your child was re-enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with a December 1, 2017 start date.
- 6) You testified that your child had medical expenses during the period from September 1, 2017, and November 30, 2017. You want all the medical expenses to be covered by the Child Health Plus plan.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Child Health Plus – Effective Date

The “period of eligibility” for Child Health Plus is “that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date,” unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage” (42 CFR § 457.340(f)).

The State of New York has provided that a child's period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see e.g. State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether your child's Child Health Plus plan was properly terminated effective August 31, 2017, because you did not pay their insurance bill by the payment deadline.

The record reflects that your child was continuously enrolled in Child Health Plus from January 1, 2016, through August 31, 2017. On September 12, 2017, the plan initiated termination of your child's health insurance coverage. On the following day NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Child Health Plus coverage would end on August 31, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline (see Document [REDACTED]).

The New York State of Health Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure by the Exchange to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a request to vacate dismissal made by the New York State of Health Appeals Unit.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether your child was properly terminated from their Child Health Plus plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, the issue of whether your child's health plan was properly terminated as of August 31, 2017, is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

Healthfirst may be able to help you with your request for coverage. If you have not already been assisted with your current coverage issue, please contact 1-866-463-6743.

In addition, since your issue concerns a health insurer and/or payment, reimbursement, coverage, benefits, rates and premiums, you can contact NY Department of Financial Services at their Consumer Hotline at (800) 342-3736 (Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM); or locally to (212) 480-6400; or you can file a complaint at <http://www.dfs.ny.gov/consumer/fileacomplaint.htm>

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child was re-enrolled in a Child Health Plus with an enrollment start date of December 1, 2017.

The record reflects that you contacted NYSOH on November 3, 2017, to reinstate your child's Child Health Plus coverage.

The date on which enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The record reflects that you selected the Child Health Plus plan on November 3, 2017. Since the health plan was selected on November 3, 2017, which is between the first and fifteenth day of the month, the plan properly began on the first day of following month; that is, on December 1, 2017.

Therefore, the November 4, 2017 plan enrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The issue of whether your child's health plan was properly terminated as of August 31, 2017, is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The November 4, 2017 plan enrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: February 07, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This decision does not change your child's eligibility for or enrollment in health insurance coverage.

Your child was re-enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan, effective as of December 1, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)
