Decision

Decision Date: February 5, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000024092

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective December 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On October 6, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for financial assistance.

On October 7, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that the income information you provided did not match what NYSOH obtained from State and Federal data sources. You were requested to provide proof of your household income by October 21, 2017 so that an appropriate eligibility determination could be rendered.

On November 1, 2017, NYSOH received four earnings statements you received from your employer, [REDACTED], between October 6, 2017 and October 27, 2017.

Also on November 1, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility based on the income documentation you provided.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the November 1, 2017 redetermination by NYSOH, stating that you are eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective December 1, 2017. It further stated that you did not qualify for Medicaid since your household income was over the allowable amount of income.

On November 6, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of that eligibility determination insofar as you were not eligible for Medicaid.

On January 31, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. At your request, [REDACTED] attended the hearing. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record support the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You further testified that you not claim any dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself only.
- 3) Your eligibility was redetermined on November 1, 2017, and listed annual household income of $19,805.50, consisting solely of income you anticipate earning from your employment with [REDACTED]. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) You testified, and your NYSOH application reflected, that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 5) You testified, and provided documentation, that your monthly income for October 2017, the month of your original application, was $1,523.50. This was derived from the four earnings statements you provided, reflecting that you received $335.50 on October 6, 2017, $396.00 on October 13, 2017, $396.00 on October 20, 2017 and $396.00 on October 27, 2017.
- 6) You live in [REDACTED], New York.
- 7) You testified that you were seeking to be redetermined eligible for Medicaid since the premiums for the Essential Plan were too high for your remaining income after taking rent, utilities and other living expenses into consideration.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective December 1, 2017.

The redetermination of your eligibility that was processed on November 1, 2017 listed an annual household income of $19,805.50. This figure was based on an average weekly income of $380.86, which was derived from the earnings statements you provided to NYSOH on November 1, 2017. You testified that those figures were reasonably accurate, and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $19,805.50 is 166.71% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $19,805.50 is 164.22% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

On November 1, 2017, you submitted to NYSOH four earnings statements reflecting that you received $1,523.50 during the month of your original application, which was October 2017.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. Since the documentation you provided shows that you earned $1,523.50 in October 2017, you do not qualify for Medicaid based on monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since the November 2, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for the Essential Plan, and not eligible for Medicaid, it was correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The November 2, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: February 5, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective December 1, 2017.

You are not eligible for Medicaid.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
