Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) ended effective October 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On May 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your May 24, 2017 updated application, stating in part that you were eligible to receive up to $271.00 in APTC for a limited time, effective July 1, 2017. The notice directed you to provide documentation of your household income by August 22, 2017, so that your eligibility could be confirmed.

Also on May 25, 2017, a plan enrollment notice was issued confirming in part your selection of a bronze-level qualified health plan (QHP) with a monthly premium of $128.59 after your monthly APTC of $271.00 was applied.

No documentation was submitted by August 22, 2017.

On August 30, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that, effective October 1, 2017, you were newly eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost. The notice stated that you were not eligible to receive APTC because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application and the date to send in this information has passed.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on August 30, 2017, a plan enrollment notice was issued confirming in part, your selection of a bronze-level QHP; however, at the increased monthly premium amount of $399.59.

On November 30, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your coverage in your bronze-level QHP ended September 30, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On November 13, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as your APTC was terminated for the month of September 2017, and you were billed by the QHP for an additional $271.00 for that month.

On February 1, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On May 24, 2017, you submitted an updated application for insurance and were found conditionally eligible for APTC, effective July 1, 2017. You were required to submit proof of household income to NYSOH by August 22, 2017.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you receive all your notices from NYSOH via regular mail.
- 3) No proof of income documentation was submitted by August 22, 2017.
- 4) Your NYSOH account indicates that, on August 29, 2017, your application was systematically run and you were found no longer eligible for APTC as of October 1, 2017.
- 5) You testified that you did not receive any notices stating that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your income to confirm your eligibility until you called NYSOH in September 2017 and were advised the same.
- 6) You testified that you are seeking your APTC reinstated for the month of September 2017 because you have a bill due to the insurance company for $271.00.

- 7) You testified that you did not re-enroll in a QHP coverage because the premiums were too expensive for you.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income for purposes of determining their eligibility for APTC (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals, whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any changes in eligibility to APTC effective as of the first day of the month following the date of the notice (45 § 155.310(f), 45 CFR § 155.330(e), (f)(1)(i)).

End of Tax Year Reconciliation

At the end of a tax year, a person who elects to take the APTC to help pay for the cost of an insurance premium must file a tax return to reconcile any differences between the amount of income the person reported to NYSOH and their actual gross income for that year. A person who received less tax credit than her maximum entitlement, based on gross income, may receive an income tax refund, or owe less in taxes. A person who received more tax credit than his maximum entitlement, based on gross income, will owe the excess as an additional income tax liability (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for APTC ended effective October 1, 2017.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking APTC, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on May 25, 2017, you were advised that your eligibility for APTC was only conditional, and that you needed to confirm your household's income by August 22, 2017. Therefore, the notice afforded you 90 days to resolve the income inconsistency in your NYSOH account.

You testified that you did not receive any notices stating that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your income to confirm your eligibility. You further testified that it was not until you called NYSOH in September 2017, and were advised of the same. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable. Therefore, the May 25, 2017 notice is deemed sent and received.

As such, NYSOH properly notified you of an inconsistency in your account and that documentation was needed to confirm the income information listed in the account.

Because there was no timely submission of income documentation by the 90-day deadline of August 22, 2017, on August 29, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility based on the information available from federal and state data sources.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On August 30, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost, effective October 1, 2017.

Any changes in APTC are to be made effective the first day of the month following the eligibility determination notice. Accordingly, your eligibility for APTC should have ended as of September 1, 2017, the month following the issuance of the August 30, 2017 eligibility determination notice.

Since the August 30, 2017 eligibility determination notice stated that you were newly eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost and not eligible to receive APTC, as of October 1, 2017, it is MODIFIED to state that you were newly eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost and not eligible to receive APTC as of September 1, 2017.

Lastly, at the end of a tax year, a person who elects to take APTC to help pay for the cost of an insurance premium must file a tax return to reconcile any differences between the amount of income the person reported to NYSOH and their actual gross income for that year, which may also result in a tax credit or reduction in tax liability if the full amount of APTC to which a person is entitled is not taken throughout the year. Conversely, if a person received more APTC than their maximum entitlement, based on gross income, they might owe the excess as an additional income tax liability. The amount of APTC to which you were entitled can be reconciled at the time you file your 2017 federal tax return.

Decision

The August 30, 2017 eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to state that you were newly eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost and not eligible to receive APTC as of September 1, 2017.

Effective Date of this Decision: February 08, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were not eligible to receive APTC, effective September 1, 2017, because you did not provide documentation of your household's income to NYSOH in a timely manner.

This decision does not change your current eligibility.

Summary

The August 30, 2017 eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to state that you were newly eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost and not eligible to receive APTC as of September 1, 2017.

You were not eligible to receive APTC, effective September 1, 2017, because you did not provide documentation of your household's income to NYSOH in a timely manner.

This decision does not change your current eligibility.

The amount of APTC to which you were entitled in 2017 can be reconciled at the time you file your 2017 federal tax return.
