Decision

Decision Date: February 08, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID:
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000024420

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

> Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible to receive advance payments of the premium tax credit and cost sharing reductions, effective November 1, 2017?
> Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible to receive Medicaid through NYSOH?

Procedural History

On October 10, 2017, NYSOH received your completed application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was regarding that application, stating that you were not eligible to receive help paying for your health insurance coverage; however, you could purchase a qualified health plan (QHP) at full cost.

On October 11, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the information contained in the October 10, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost, effective November 1, 2017. The notice further stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because you were 65 years of age or over, and that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) because your household income was below the income threshold.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 14, 2017, NYSOH received (1) a NY State identification card, (2) a letter requesting an appeal of your eligibility determination, (3) a letter issued by the Social Security Administration (SSA) stating that your claim for Social Security benefit had not been approved, and (4) a listing of [redacted] [redacted].

On November 15, 2017, NYSOH received an Authorized Representative Consent Form stating that you wanted [redacted] to act as your Authorized Representative solely to discuss your Medicaid coverage and to assist you in applying for and/or renewing your Medicaid coverage.

On November 16, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you were not found eligible for financial assistance with health insurance through NYSOH.

On November 22, 2017, NYSOH received a letter from you requesting an expedited appeal. This request was denied because it did not provide sufficient evidence to meet the standard required for the expedited appeal process.

On January 9, 2018, you appeared for a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record support the following findings of fact:

1) You testified that you did not expect to file your 2017 taxes because you would not be receiving any income this year. You further testified that your son, who lives with you, files a tax return and anticipates claiming you as a dependent.

2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.

3) The application that was submitted on October 10, 2017 reflects that you have no household income and that you rely upon your family for financial support. Further, this application indicated that your child would be claiming you as a dependent, and that his household income was $0.00.

4) You testified, and provided documentation, that you were found not eligible for Social Security benefits or Medicare since you did not have the necessary work credits.

5) The record reflects, that your date of birth is [redacted] and that you are currently [redacted].

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

6) You testified that you applied for Medicaid through your Human Resources Administration but were referred to NYSOH.

7) You live in [redacted], New York.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Medicaid

An individual is eligible for enrollment in Medicaid through NYSOH (called MAGI-based Medicaid) when he or she meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard (45 CFR § 155.305(c); NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In general, to qualify for MAGI-based Medicaid through NYSOH, you must also be one of the following:

- An adult aged 19-64 who is not eligible for Medicare Part A or Part B,
- A pregnant woman or infant,
- A child aged 1-18, or
- A parent or caretaker relative

(45 CFR § 155.305(c); NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

If an individual does not fall into one of these categories, he or she may still be eligible for non-MAGI-based Medicaid coverage through their Local Department of Social Services or the New York City Human Resources Administration (see NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for APTC and cost-sharing reductions (CSR) as of November 1, 2017.

The application that was submitted on October 10, 2017 listed an expected annual household income of $0.00 and NYSOH properly relied upon that information. It also indicated that you would not be filing a tax return and that you would be declared a dependent by another person. However, the application did not include any information regarding that other person, who is not included in your account.

Therefore, based on the available information in your NYSOH account, you are in a one-person household. You do not expect to file a tax return for 2017.

As stated above, APTC and CSR are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a QHP and expects to file a tax return, and whose income is between 138% and 400% of the applicable FPL.

Your October 10, 2017 NYSOH application states that you will not be filing a federal tax return in 2017 and that your adjusted gross income was $0.00. While you testified, and your application reflects, that your child would be claiming you as a dependent on his tax return, we are unable to review your eligibility on that basis because your child is not included as a member within your NYSOH account. Furthermore, your gross income of $0.00, which is 0.00% of the applicable FPL, is below the threshold to receive APTC.

Moreover, persons who are not eligible for APTC are also ineligible for CSR.

Accordingly, NYSOH correctly determined that you were not eligible for either APTC or CSR based on the information contained in your October 10, 2017 application.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to receive Medicaid through NYSOH.

Medicaid through NYSOH (called MAGI-based Medicaid) is available to individuals who are between the ages of 19 and 64, who are not eligible for Medicare Parts A or B; pregnant women or infants; children between the ages of 1 and 18; and parent or caretaker relatives.

According to your testimony and the information in your NYSOH application, you are single with no dependents and, therefore, you not a parent or a caretaker relative of a dependent child.

The record reflects that, at the time NYSOH issued the October 11, 2017 eligibility determination you were ████████.

Since your NYSOH application states that you will not be filing taxes for 2017, are over the allowable age limit for MAGI-based Medicaid, and not a parent or caretaker relative, the October 11, 2017 eligibility determination notice finding you eligible for a full cost QHP, not eligible for APTC, not eligible for CSR, and not eligible for Medicaid, was correct and must be AFFIRMED.
