Decision

Decision Date: January 24, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000024573

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective January 1, 2018?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On November 20, 2017, you applied to NYSOH for financial assistance with your health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared, stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan (QHP) at full cost through NYSOH, effective January 1, 2018.

Also on November 20, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you had not been found eligible for financial assistance with health insurance.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the application, stating that you were eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost, effective January 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for an advance premium tax credit (APTC), cost-sharing reductions (CSR), the Essential Plan, or Medicaid, because your household income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On January 9, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2018 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself only
- 3) The application that was submitted on November 20, 2017, listed annual household income of $52,000.00, consisting of $25.00 per hour you earn from your employment with [REDACTED], 40 hours per week. You testified that this total amount was correct.
- 4) You testified that your gross weekly income from [REDACTED] was $1,000.00, and does not fluctuate.
- 5) You testified, and your application reflects, that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2018 tax return.
- 6) You live in Westchester County, New York.
- 7) You testified that you have bills including rent, utilities and other living expenses should be deducted from your household income.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a QHP and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the applicable FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL, or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities, are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (id.).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to receive APTC, effective January 1, 2018.

The application that was submitted on November 20, 2017 listed an annual household income of $52,000.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information. During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you asked that your current expenses, including rent, electricity, and other living expenses, be considered when calculating your annual household income.

Because the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses such as rent, utilities, cable, and phone to be deducted from your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $52,000.00.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

APTC is available to a person who has a household income effectively not less than 200% and no greater than 400% of the applicable FPL. Since a household income of $52,000.00 is 431.18% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be not eligible for APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found not eligible for CSR.

CSR is available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the applicable FPL. Since a household income of $52,000.00 is 431.18% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be not eligible for CSR.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $52,000.00 is 431.18% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The fourth issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $52,000.00 is 431.18% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

During the hearing, you credibly testified that your gross weekly income from [REDACTED] was $1,000.00, and does not fluctuate.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. Since you testified that you received approximately $4,000.00 during the month of your application, November 2017, you do not qualify for Medicaid based on monthly income as of the date of your application.

Because the November 21, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were not eligible to receive an APTC, not eligible for CSR, not eligible for the Essential Plan, and not eligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The November 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: January 24, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility
