Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you, your spouse, and your child were ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective January 1, 2018?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you, your spouse, and your child were ineligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you, your spouse, and your child were ineligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On November 20, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared finding you, your spouse, and your child eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective January 1, 2018.

Also on November 20, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your family's ineligibility for financial assistance.

On November 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the November 20, 2017 application, stating that you, your spouse, and your child were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective January 1, 2018. That notice also stated that your household was ineligible to receive advance payments of the premium tax credit, cost-sharing reductions, or the Essential Plan, because your income was over the allowable income limit for those programs.

On January 8, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open for 15 days to allow you to provide supporting documentation.

As of the close of the record on January 23, 2018, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim one dependent on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance for yourself, your spouse, and your child.
- 3) You testified you are not seeking Medicaid eligibility for anyone in your household.
- 4) The application that was submitted on November 20, 2017, listed annual household income of $119,642.60, consisting of $54,400.00 you earn from your business, and $60,950.00 your spouse receives from your business, as well as $4,292.60 your spouse receives from her second employer. You testified that this amount was correct at the time for 2017.
- 5) You testified that you sold your business on November 7, 2017, and received a lump sum payment of [REDACTED]
- 6) You testified that since the sale of your business, you no longer will be receiving a paycheck, and your wife, and son will no longer receive paychecks from that business. Your only source of income is your wife's second employer at $4,292.60.
- 7) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 8) Your application states that your family lives in Onondaga County, NY.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Federal Register 4036.).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income.

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you, your spouse, and your child were ineligible for APTC effective January 1, 2018.

The application that was submitted on November 20, 2017 listed an annual household income of $119,642.60 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are all in a three-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim one dependent on that tax return.

APTC is generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a QHP and expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable FPL.

An annual income of $119,642.60 is 746.83% of the 2016 FPL for a three-person household. At 746.83% you, your wife, and your child would not be eligible for APTC as your household income is well over the 400% FPL limit for the applicable budget period.

Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined you, your spouse, and your child to be ineligible for APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you, your spouse, and your child were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $119,642.60 is 746.83% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you, your spouse, and your child were ineligible for the Essential Plan, effective January 1, 2018.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $20,160.00 for a three-person household. Since an annual household income of $119,642.60 is 746.83% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan, effective January 1, 2018.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since the November 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you, your spouse, and your child were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost and ineligible for APTC, ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan effective January 1, 2018, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
