Decision

Decision Date: February 08, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000024723

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $284.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective December 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On October 31, 2017, you applied to NYSOH for financial assistance with your health insurance.

On November 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the information contained in the October 31, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 premium, for a limited time, effective December 1, 2017. The notice requested that you provide income documentation to NYSOH by January 29, 2017 to confirm your eligibility.

Also on November 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your selection of an Essential Plan as of October 31, 2017, with such coverage to begin effective December 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 15, 2017, NYSOH received four earnings statements issued to you by your employer, [REDACTED] between October 7, 2017 and November 3, 2017.

Also on November 15, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance.

On November 16, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit (APTC) of up to $284.00 per month and, if you selected a silver-level plan, eligible for cost-sharing reductions (CSR), effective December 1, 2017.

Also on November 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice confirming that your Essential Plan coverage had ended effective December 1, 2017.

On November 22, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the November 16, 2017 eligibility determination notice insofar as you were seeking to be redetermined eligible for the Essential Plan.

On January 19, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your NYSOH application reflects, that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself only.
- 3) Your eligibility that was redetermined by NYSOH on November 15, 2017, listed annual household income of $27,456.00, consisting solely of income you received from your employer, [REDACTED]. You testified that this total amount was reasonably correct.
- 4) You testified that you earn $11.00 per hour from your employer, and typically work 40 hours per week at that rate. You further testified that you typically receive 8 hours per week of overtime, which is paid at $16.50 per hour.

- 5) On November 15, 2017, NYSOH received four earnings statements issued to you by your employer reflecting that you received: (1) $572.00 on October 7, 2017, (2) $572.00 on October 13, 2017, (3) $572.00 on October 27, 2017, and $396.00 on November 3, 2017.
- 6) Your NYSOH application reflects that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 7) You live in Kings County, New York.
- 8) You testified that your living expenses, including your rent, make affording a qualified health plan through NYSOH impossible, and that you could only afford the Essential Plan coverage, which you previously paid $47.00 per month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a QHP and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NYSOH in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), IRS Revenue Procedure (RP) 2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the applicable FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS RP 2016-24).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible to receive up to $284.00 per month in APTC.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Your eligibility was redetermined by NYSOH based on an annual household income of $27,456.00. This annual household income was derived from the earnings statements you provided to NYSOH reflecting income you received from your employer between October 7, 2017 and November 3, 2017. These earnings statements state that you received an average gross weekly income amount of $528.00 during that period. Accordingly, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $27,456.00. The eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in Kings County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $27,456.00 is 231.11% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 231.11% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 7.54% of income, or $172.46 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($172.46 per month), which equals $284.00 per month. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $284.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found eligible for CSR.

CSR is available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the applicable FPL. Since a household income of $27,456.00 is 231.11% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for CSR.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $27,456.00 is 231.11% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you not eligible for the Essential Plan.

Because the November 16, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $284.00 per month in APTC, eligible for CSR, and not eligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The November 16, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: February 08, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were eligible for an APTC of up to $284.00 and, if you selected a silver-level plan, eligible for CSR, effective December 1, 2017.

You are not eligible for the Essential Plan.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your appeal was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace.
