Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you could not enroll into a qualified health plan for the month of December 2017?

Procedural History

On November 30, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance in which you indicated that you were pregnant.

On December 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you, your spouse, and your oldest child were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost. This eligibility was effective January 1, 2018.

Also on December 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you, your spouse, and your oldest child were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2018.

Also on December 1, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the eligibility determination and enrollment confirmation notices insofar as you were not eligible for coverage on December 1, 2017.

On February 6, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You submitted an application to NYSOH for financial assistance on November 30, 2017.
- 2) Your November 30, 2017 application states that you were pregnant and expecting one child with a due date of [REDACTED].
- 3) You testified that you found out you were pregnant on [REDACTED].
- 4) You testified, and the record reflects, that you selected a qualified health plan on November 30, 2017.
- 5) Your enrollment in the plan became effective January 1, 2018.
- 6) You testified that you need your qualified health plan and eligibility for financial assistance to begin on December 1, 2017 because you have outstanding medical bills for services rendered in December 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

(1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:

(i) Loses minimum essential coverage.

(ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.

(iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

In New York, pregnancy triggers a special enrollment period for individuals without insurance allowing them to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH's Exchange (NYS Insurance Law § 4328(b)(4)(A)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan- Pregnant Individuals

The effective date of coverage by a qualified health plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i)). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

A pregnant individual may enroll at any time after a licensed health care professional certifies that the individual is pregnant. The effective date of coverage is the first day of the month in which the individual is certified pregnant, unless the individual elects to have coverage begin the first day of the month following the date that the individual is certified pregnant (NY INS §4328(b)(4)(B)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you could not enroll into a qualified health plan for the month of December 2017.

The record reflects that on November 30, 2017, you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in a qualified health plan. On December 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice and an enrollment confirmation notice stating that your, your spouse's, and your oldest child's eligibility for and enrollment in a qualified health plan was effective January 1, 2018.

You are seeking coverage for yourself effective December 1, 2017 due to outstanding medical bills for services rendered in December 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017 for enrollment in coverage for the 2017 coverage year. Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

Since you applied for coverage on November 30, 2017, and are requesting to enroll into a qualified health plan for December 2017, you would need to qualify for a special enrollment period.

Pregnancy is a triggering life event that may qualify an individual for a special enrollment period to enroll in health coverage, the law applies to pregnant individuals who are not currently enrolled in health insurance.

Therefore, based on your November 30, 2017 application, you would have qualified for a special enrollment period to enroll into coverage for the 2017 coverage year.

The effective date of coverage for a pregnant individual is the first day of the month in which the individual is certified pregnant, or the first day of the month following the date that the individual is certified pregnant. You credibly testified that you found out you were pregnant on [REDACTED], and updated your application on November 30, 2017 to include that information.

Since you found out you were pregnant on [REDACTED], the first day of the next month following [REDACTED] would be December 1, 2017, which is the date that you requested enrollment to begin. Therefore, based on the date you found out you were pregnant and your pregnancy status at the time of your November 30, 2017 application, you should have been determined to enroll in a qualified health plan effective December 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's December 1, 2017 eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED in part to state that your eligibility to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost is effective December 1, 2017. Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to facilitate your enrollment in an individual qualified health plan for December 2017. This Decision does not affect your current enrollment.
