Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $284.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective January 1, 2018?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions, effective January 1, 2018?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan, effective January 1, 2018?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid, effective January 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On December 4, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance. In response to this application, NYSOH prepared a preliminary eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $284.00 a month in APTC, effective January 1, 2018.

Also on December 4, 2017, your authorized representative spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that preliminary eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not eligible for Medicaid and could not otherwise afford health insurance even with APTC.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On December 5, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to $284.00 in APTC, as well as cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, both effective January 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid or the Essential Plan because your annual household income of $37,000.00 was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On January 30, 2018, you submitted an updated application for financial assistance with your health insurance. In that application you attested to an annual household income for 2018 as $37,800.00.

On January 31, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to $273.00 in APTC, as well as cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, both effective March 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid or the Essential Plan because your annual household income of $37,800.00 was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On February 14, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Spanish interpreter # [REDACTED] provided interpreter services. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) You testified that your spouse has health insurance through her employer.
- 4) The application that was submitted on December 4, 2017 listed annual household income of $37,000.00, consisting of $30,000.00 you earn from your employment and $7,000.00 your spouse earns from her employment. You testified that this amount was correct at the time of the December 4, 2017 application.
- 5) You testified that a better estimate of your income from employment in a [REDACTED] for 2018 would be $33,800.00. You also testified that your spouse will probably earn approximately $4,000.00 in 2018. Therefore, you testified that a better estimate of your household income for 2018 is $37,800.00.

- 6) According to your NYSOH account, you submitted an updated application for health insurance on January 30, 2018. In that application, you attested to an expected household income for 2018 of $37,800.
- 7) According to your NYSOH account, the January 31, 2018 eligibility determination notice, that was based on your January 30, 2018 updated application, found you eligible for up to $273.00 in monthly APTC, effective March 1, 2018.
- 8) Your applications states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2018 tax return.
- 9) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony you live in New York County.
- 10) You testified that health insurance is unaffordable even with the application of APTC to your monthly premium. This is because of the high basic living expenses associated with New York City. You believe that these expenses should be deducted from your household income and considered in the calculation the financial assistance you receive.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (id.).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2018 is set by federal law at 2.01% to 9.56% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

For annual household income in the range of at least 250% but less than 200% of the 2017 FPL, the expected contribution is between 8.10% and 6.34% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your December 4, 2017 application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $284.00 per month in APTC, effective January 1, 2018.

The application that was submitted on December 4, 2017 listed an annual household income of $37,000.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information. You testified that this amount was correct at the time.

You testified that health insurance is unaffordable even with the application of APTC to your monthly premium. This is because of the high basic living expenses associated with New York City. You believe that these expenses should be deducted from your household income and considered in the calculation the financial assistance you receive. However, because the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined eligibility based on annual household income of $37,000.00.

You are in a two-person household. You expect to file your 2018 income tax return as married filing jointly and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in New York County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $509.61 per month.

An annual income of $37,000.00 is 227.83% of the 2017 FPL for a two-person household. At 227.83% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 7.32% of income, or $225.70 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($509.61 per month) minus your expected contribution ($225.70 per month), which equals $283.91 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $284.00 per month in APTC.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The second issue is whether you were properly determined eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $37,000.00 is 227.83% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is generally provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,240.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $37,000.00 is 227.83% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The fourth issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,240.00 for a two-person household. Since $37,000.00 is 227.83% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

Since the December 5, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $284.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, ineligible for the Essential Plan and ineligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

It is noted that you testified that your household income for 2018 has changed slightly from $37,000.00 to $37,800.00. This is the same income amount that you attested to in the January 30, 2018 updated application.

This decision does not affect that January 31, 2018 eligibility determination notice.
