Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $166.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective January 1, 2018?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions as of December 3, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan as of December 3, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid as of December 3, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 2, 2017, you applied for health insurance and financial assistance through NYSOH.

On December 3, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to $166 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) if you enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for cost sharing reductions, the Essential Plan, or Medicaid because your annual household income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On December 6, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not eligible for an increased amount of financial assistance.

On December 23, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan with APTC of $166 per month applied to your monthly premium, both effective February 1, 2018.

On February 13, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open until February 27, 2018, to allow you time to submit supporting documents.

On February 22, 2018, NYSOH received, via electronic upload, your supporting documents, consisting of paystubs from your two employers during the period of from November 26, 2017 through December 23, 2017. The documents were collectively marked as Appellant's Exhibit #1 and incorporated into the record. The record is now closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of head of household. You will claim one dependent on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself for calendar year 2018.
- 3) The application that was submitted on December 2, 2017 listed annual household income of $47,600.00, consisting of $47,600.00 you earn from your employment. You testified that you expect to make over $60,000.00 in 2018.
- 4) On February 22, 2018, you provided documentation showing that you received paystubs from [REDACTED] on December 11, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $986.00, on December 18, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $1,036.00, on December 22, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $986.00, and on December 29, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $636.00.
- 5) On February 22, 2018, you provided documentation showing that you received paystubs from [REDACTED] that showed on December 8, 2017 you received a gross pay amount of $430.91, on December 15, 2017 you received a gross pay amount of $600.14, on December 22, 2017 you received a gross pay amount of $81.00, and on December 29, 2017 you received a gross pay amount of $412.17.

- 6) Your application states that you will be taking a student loan interest deduction of $2,400.00 on your 2018 tax return.
- 7) Your application states that you live in Suffolk County.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2018 is set by federal law at 2.01% to 9.56% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

For annual household income in the range of at least 250% but less than 300% of the 2017 FPL, the expected contribution is between 8.10% and 9.56% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

"Adjusted gross income" means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (id.).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $166.00 per month in APTC.

The application that was submitted on December 2, 2017 listed an annual household income of $47,600.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a two-person household. You expect to file your 2018 income tax return as head of household and will claim one dependent on that tax return.

You reside in Suffolk County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $536.95 per month.

An annual income of $47,600.00 is 293.10% of the 2017 FPL for a two-person household. At 293.10% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 9.36% of income, or $371.28 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($536.95 per month) minus your expected contribution ($371.28 per month), which equals $165.67 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $166.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly determined ineligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $47,600.00 is 293.10% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is generally provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,240.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $47,600.00 is 293.10% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The fourth issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,240.00 for a two-person household. Since $47,600.00 is 293.10% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

You submitted paystubs that show in December 2017 you received $5,168.22.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,868.00 per month. Since the documentation you provided shows that you earned $5,168.22 in December 2017, you do not qualify for Medicaid based on monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since the December 3, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $166.00 per month in APTC and ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, the Essential Plan and Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

During the hearing, you testified that you do not believe that $47,600.00. is your correct annual expected income. You testified that your gross income for 2018 will exceed $60,000.00.

Therefore, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility for financial assistance based on a two-person household residing in Suffolk County, with an expected annual household income of $60,000.00.

Decision

The December 3, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine both your eligibility for financial assistance based on a two-person household residing in Suffolk County, with an expected annual household income of $60,000.00.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 12, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $166.00 in APTC based on the information in your application.

NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions, the Essential Plan, or Medicaid based on the income information in your application.

This is not a final determination of your eligibility. Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility based on information you provided at your hearing.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the
