Decision

Decision Date: March 21, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [redacted]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000025449

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

> Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective December 1, 2017?
> Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On November 17, 2017, you applied for health insurance and financial assistance through NYSOH.

On November 18, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective December 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because your annual household income was over the allowable income limits for that program.

Also on November 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in the Essential Plan, effective December 1, 2017.

On December 6, 2017, you submitted an updated application for financial assistance with health insurance; specifically, you updated your household size. That day, a preliminary determination was prepared stating that the information you provided did not match what NYSOH obtained from state and federal data sources, and additional income documentation was required to confirm that the information in your application was accurate.

Also on December 6, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and filed an appeal insofar as you were not determined eligible for Medicaid.

On December 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the income information in your application did not match what NYSOH received from state and federal data sources. You were directed to provide proof of income for your household by December 21, 2017.

Also on December 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your coverage with the Essential Plan would end effective December 31, 2017.

On December 20, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were eligible for Medicaid for a limited time, effective December 1, 2017. This was because you had been granted Aid to Continue pending the outcome of your appeal.

Also on December 20, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective December 1, 2017.

On February 8, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open to February 22, 2018, to allow you time to submit supporting documents.

As of February 22, 2018, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of Head of Household. You will claim two dependents on that tax return.

2) The November 17, 2017 application states that you expect to file your tax return with a tax filing status of Head of Household, but will claim no dependents.

3) The December 6, 2017 application states that you expect to file your tax return with a tax filing status of Head of Household, and that you will claim three dependents.

4) You are seeking health insurance for yourself, specifically Medicaid.

5) The applications that were submitted on November 17, 2017 and December 6, 2017, listed annual household income of $20,800.00, consisting of income you earn from your employment. You testified that this amount was correct at the time of those applications, but that you have been out of work since [redacted].

6) You testified that your monthly income was $2,000.00 in both November 2017 and December 2017.

7) You testified that you receive [redacted] in the amount of $860.00 for one of your household members, but that you do not claim her as a dependent.

8) You testified that one of your dependents receives $733.00 per month in disability benefits.

9) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you added your dependents to your account on December 6, 2017, and that they are not seeking insurance coverage through NYSOH.

10) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2018 tax return.

11) Your application states that you live in [redacted], NY.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Requirement for Individuals to Report Changes

NYSOH must require an applicant to report any change which may affect eligibility, such as citizenship status, incarceration, residency, household size, and income within 30 days of such change (45 CFR §155.330(b), 45 CFR §155.305, 42 CFR §435.403, 42 CFR §435.406, 42 CFR §425.603).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective December 1, 2017.
The application that was submitted on November 17, 2017, listed an annual household income of $20,800.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information. You testified that this amount was correct at the time of the application, but that you are currently out of work.

Based on the November 17, 2017 application, you were in a one-person household because your application stated that you expect to file your 2018 income tax return as Head of Household and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

The Essential Plan is generally provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $20,800.00 is 172.47% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $20,800.00 is 172.47% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

You testified that you earned $2,000.00 in each November 2017 and December 2017.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. Since you did not provide documentation in support of your testimony, NYSOH is unable to determine your eligibility for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income. However, using your testified gross income of $2,000.00 per month, you would not be eligible for Medicaid on a monthly income basis because that amount exceeds the maximum allowable income amount of $1,387.00 to qualify for Medicaid.

Since the November 18, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were conditionally eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time and not eligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Please note that your eligibility for the Essential Plan remains conditional pending proof of income.

In addition, according to your December 6, 2017 application, you reported a change in household size. At hearing, you reported that your household size had again changed, which is not reflected in your NYSOH account. You also testified that you have been out of work since [redacted] with no income, which is not reflected in your NYSOH account either. The Hearing Officer directed you to provide proof of your current tax household and employment situation, as based on your testimony; however, you did not comply and provide any documentation to support your testimony. Therefore, no further analysis can be conducted.

Besides your eligibility for the Essential Plan still being conditional, by law, you are required to report any change which may affect eligibility, such as citizenship status, incarceration, residency, household size, and income within 30 days of such change. If the information in your application is no longer correct, including household size and income as per your testimony, you must contact NYSOH to update your account with the correct information immediately.

Decision

The November 18, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 21, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were properly determined conditionally eligible for the Essential Plan.

You were properly determined ineligible for Medicaid.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
