Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective January 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On December 6, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the information contained in the December 5, 2017 updated application, stating you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost beginning January 1, 2018. It stated that you did not qualify for advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) because your application states that you are married but filing separately from your spouse.

Also on December 6, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of that eligibility determination as you were not found eligible for financial assistance.

On December 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan at full cost, effective January 1, 2018.

On February 12, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account, you will be filing your 2018 income tax return with a tax filing status of married filing separately. You will claim no dependents on that income tax return.
- 2) You testified that you are currently going through a divorce and that you expect the divorce to be finalized by the end of 2018.
- 3) You testified that you have been living separate and apart from your spouse since either March 2017 or April 2017.
- 4) You testified that, if you can file your 2018 federal tax return as single, you will, but you are unsure if you will be able to and would have to speak to your tax preparer.
- 5) You testified that your expected annual income for 2018 is $35,000.00; which includes a $5,000.00 IRA deduction.
- 6) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you live in Kings County, New York.
- 7) You testified that you are unable to afford to health insurance premium without financial assistance.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC is available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable poverty level (FPL) (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

Additionally, a tax filer who is married must file a joint return with his or her spouse to qualify for APTC (45 CFR §§ 155.305(f), 155.310(d); 26 CFR § 1.36B-2).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

However, an individual will be treated as not married at the close of the taxable year if the individual

- 1) Is legally separated from his/her spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, or
- 2) Meets all the following criteria:
 - a. files a separate return from his/her spouse and maintains his/her household as the primary home for a qualifying child;
 - b. pays more than one half of the cost of keeping up his/her home for the tax year; and
 - c. does not have his/her spouse as a member of the household during the last 6 months of the tax year

(26 USC § 7703).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you are not eligible for APTC.

In the eligibility determination notice issued on December 6, 2017, NYSOH found you ineligible for APTC because you indicated that you were married but did not plan to file a joint federal income tax return with your spouse.

To qualify for APTC, a person who is married must either file taxes jointly with his or her spouse or qualify as “not married” at the close of the tax year.

According to the information in the record and your testimony at the hearing, you are still married to your spouse and have not obtained a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance. You further testified that you expect your divorce to be finalized by the end of 2018. Although you testified that you were unsure whether you would file married filing separately or as single for 2018, the application you submitted on December 6, 2017 indicates that you plan on filing your tax return with a tax status of married filing separately in 2018.

Therefore, NYSOH was correct when it found you to be ineligible for APTC due to your tax filing status as stated in your application.

Since NYSOH correctly determined that you are not eligible for APTC, based on the information provided in your application, the December 6, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The December 6, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: February 16, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You remain eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH.

You remain ineligible for APTC because you are married but not filing your 2018 federal income tax return jointly.
