Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

> Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible to receive Medicaid through NYSOH, effective January 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On October 16, 2016, NYSOH issued a renewal notice stating that based on federal and state data sources you still qualified to get health care coverage under Medicaid and were re-enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care (MMC) plan, effective January 1, 2017.

On March 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your MMC plan would end, effective April 30, 2017, because the type of Medicaid coverage you were eligible for did not require/allow you to enroll in an MMC plan.

On March 8, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating, in relevant part, that you remained eligible for Medicaid, effective as of May 1, 2017. The notice further stated that you were no longer eligible for Medicaid; however, your coverage would continue until December 31, 2017, because individuals who qualified for Medicaid get coverage for twelve continuous months.

On October 28, 2017, NYSOH issued a renewal notice stating that you did not qualify for health insurance coverage through NYSOH, effective January 1, 2018. Based on information from federal and state data sources, it was determined that you were already enrolled in or eligible for a public insurance program such as Medicare. Further, the notice states that your information was sent to your local department of social services to determine your eligibility for Medicaid on a different basis, and your Medicaid coverage would continue through your local department of social services until your new eligibility can be determined.

On December 12, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you were determined ineligible for Medicaid.

On February 15, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Testimony was taken during the hearing and the record was fully developed. The record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you are applying for health insurance for yourself.

2) You testified that you do not expect to file a 2018 federal income tax return.

3) You testified that you reside with your [redacted] son, and they are not financially dependent on you.

4) According to you NYSOH account and testimony, you were enrolled in Medicare Part A, effective March 1, 2017.

5) You testified that you opted out of Medicare Part B because you could not afford the monthly premiums.

6) You testified that your income consists of $975.00 monthly in Social Security Disability Insurance benefits and $290.00 in monthly disability benefits from an insurance company.

7) You testified that you are seeking to be found eligible for Medicaid.

8) According to your NYSOH account, you reside in [redacted], New York.

9) You testified that you have not received any paperwork from or applied for Medicaid through Monroe County Department of Social Services (DSS).

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid

An individual is eligible for enrollment in Medicaid through NYSOH (called MAGI-based Medicaid) when he or she meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard (45 CFR § 155.305(c); N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(b)).

In general, to qualify for MAGI-based Medicaid through NYSOH, you must also be one of the following:

- An adult aged 19-64 who is not eligible for Medicare Part A or Part B,
- A pregnant woman or infant,
- A child aged 1-18, or
- A parent or caretaker relative

(45 CFR § 155.305(c); N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(b)).

If an individual does not fall into one of these categories, he or she may still be eligible for non-MAGI-based Medicaid coverage through their Local Department of Social Services or the New York City Human Resources Administration (see N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(c)).

NYSOH is required to refer an individual who is not eligible for MAGI-based Medicaid because they are in receipt of Medicare, certified disabled, or over the age of 65 to the Local Department of Social Services or the Human Resources Administration. During the referral process, an individual's Medicaid eligibility, including their enrollment in a Medicaid Managed Care plan or receipt of Premium Payment Assistance, continues until such a time as their eligibility can be redetermined on a non-MAGI Medicaid basis (see generally 42 CFR § 435.1200, 42 CFR § 435.930, 14 OHIP/LCM-2 effective as of December 1, 2014, GIS 16 MA/04 effective as of January 1, 2016).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to receive Medicaid through NYSOH.

Medicaid through NYSOH (called MAGI-based Medicaid) is available to individuals who are between the ages of 19 and 64, who are not eligible for Medicare Parts A or B, pregnant women or infants, children between the ages of 1 and 18, and parent or caretaker relatives.

The record reflects that when NYSOH issued the October 28, 2017 eligibility determination notice, you were eligible for and enrolled in Medicare Part A. Further, you only reside with your [redacted] son, who is not financially dependent on you. Therefore, you are not a parent or caretaker relative of a dependent child.

Since you were enrolled in Medicare and not a parent or caretaker relative, NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid through NYSOH.

Therefore, the October 28, 2017, eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Individuals who are no longer eligible for MAGI-based Medicaid because they are receiving Medicare, over the age of 65, or have become certified disabled may qualify for Medicaid under non-MAGI standards. NYSOH is required to refer these individuals to the Local DSS for redetermination of their Medicaid eligibility.

Once a case is referred, NYSOH and the Local DSS must ensure that an individual's Medicaid is maintained throughout the redetermination process to prevent any gaps in coverage.

The October 28, 2017, NYSOH notice stated that your information was sent to your Local DSS to determine your eligibility for Medicaid on a different basis, and your Medicaid coverage would continue through your LDSS until your new eligibility can be determined.

You testified that you have not received any paperwork from nor applied for Medicaid through Monroe County DSS.

Therefore, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to refer to your case to Monroe County DSS and to reinstate your Medicaid fee-for-service coverage through NYSOH as of January 1, 2018. Furthermore, your coverage shall continue until your case can be properly transferred to Monroe County DSS for a redetermination of your eligibility for Medicaid on a non-MAGI basis.

Decision

The October 28, 2017, eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to refer to your case to Monroe County DSS and to reinstate your Medicaid fee-for-service coverage through NYSOH as of January 1, 2018. NYSOH shall continue your coverage until your case can be properly transferred to Monroe County DSS for a redetermination of your eligibility for Medicaid on a non-MAGI basis.

Effective Date of this Decision: February 21, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to reinstate your Medicaid fee-for-service coverage as of January 1, 2018, and to notify once it is reinstated.

Your Medicaid coverage through NYSOH will continue until your case can be properly transferred to Monroe County DSS for a redetermination of your eligibility for Medicaid on a non-MAGI basis.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
