Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit or cost-sharing reductions, effective January 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On December 13, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan; however, you did not qualify for advance premium tax credits or cost-sharing reductions. You enrolled in a bronze-level qualified health plan at full cost that day for a January 1, 2018 start date.

Also on December 13, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of that preliminary eligibility determination as it related to the level of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive.

On December 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the information contained in the December 13, 2017 application, stating you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost beginning January 1, 2018. It also stated that you do not qualify for an advance premium tax credit because your application states that the primary tax filers in your household are married but not filing taxes jointly. It also stated that you do not qualify for cost-sharing reductions because you are not eligible for advance premium tax credits.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On December 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a bronze-level qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2018.

On February 15, 2018, a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit contacted you for your scheduled hearing. Your request to adjourn your hearing for a new date and time was granted.

On February 26, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit and agreed to waive formal written notice under oath in order to proceed that day. The record was developed during the hearing and held open until March 13, 2018, to allow you to provide supporting income documentation.

At the close of the record on March 13, 2018, the NYSOH Appeals Unit did not receive the requested documentation and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record is considered complete as of the date of your hearing and this Decision is based on the record as developed during the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you will be filing your 2018 income tax return with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that income tax return.
- 2) You testified you have no children that you will claim as dependents.
- 3) Your application submitted on December 13, 2017, lists your marital status as separated.
- 4) You testified that you attempted to get a divorce in 1997, but did not obtain a judicial decree of divorce or separate maintenance signed by a presiding judge.
- 5) You testified you have not resided with your spouse since 1997.
- 6) You testified that you last lived with your spouse in 1997.
- 7) Your application states that you live in Nassau County, NY.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit (APTC) is available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable poverty level (FPL) (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

Additionally, a tax filer who is married must file a joint return with his or her spouse in order to qualify for APTC (45 CFR §§ 155.305(f), 155.310(d)(2)(ii)(B); 26 CFR § 1.36B-2).

However, an individual will be treated as not married at the close of the taxable year if the individual

- 1) Is legally separated from his/her spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, or
- 2) Meets all of the following criteria:
 - a. files a separate return from his/her spouse and maintains his/her household as the primary home for a qualifying child;
 - b. pays more than one half of the cost of keeping up his/her home for the tax year; and
 - c. does not have his/her spouse as a member of the household during the last 6 months of the tax year

(26 USC § 7703).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you are not eligible for APTC and cost-sharing reductions.

In the eligibility determination notice issued on December 14, 2017, NYSOH found you ineligible for APTC because you indicated that you were separated but did not plan to file a joint federal income tax return.

To qualify for APTC, a person who is married must either file taxes jointly with his or her spouse or qualify as “not married” at the close of the tax year.

According to the information in the record and your testimony at the hearing, you are still married to your spouse and have not obtained a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance. Also, you confirmed that you do not plan to file a joint federal income tax return with your spouse for the 2018 tax year.

There is an exception, as noted above, that allows a tax filer to be treated as “not married” at the close of a taxable year, making the tax filer eligible for APTC. However, the record as developed does not support a finding that you meet the necessary requirements for that exception in that you are not legally separated from your spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance. Also, because you have no children, you cannot meet all of the first requirement of the second manner to qualify for an exception in that you do not have any children as dependents and, therefore, do not maintain your household as the primary home for a qualifying child.

Therefore, NYSOH was correct when it found that you were not eligible for APTC due to your tax filing status.

Cost-sharing reductions are available only to those who meet the requirements for APTC. Since you did not qualify for APTC, NYSOH correctly found that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions.

Since NYSOH correctly determined that you are not eligible for APTC or cost-sharing reductions, the December 14, 2017 notice of eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The December 14, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 19, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You remain eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH.

You remain ineligible for an APTC because you are married but not filing your 2018 federal income tax return jointly and do not otherwise qualify for an exception.

You remain ineligible for cost-sharing reductions because you are not eligible for APTC.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
