Decision

Decision Date: March 20, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000025897

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $360.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective January 1, 2018?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On December 15, 2017, you applied for health insurance and financial assistance through NY State of Health (NYSOH). That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to receive up to $360.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and cost-sharing reductions, effective January 1, 2018.

Also on December 15, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that preliminary eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

On December 16, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, consistent with the preliminary eligibility determination, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $360.00 in APTC, as well as cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, both effective January 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your annual household income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

On February 22, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open to March 9, 2018, to allow you time to submit supporting documents.

On February 23, 2018, February 27, 2018 and March 8, 2018, NYSOH received your supporting documents by upload. The documents were made part of the record collectively as "Appellant's Exhibit # A." No further documentation was received as of March 9, 2018, and the record was closed that day.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on December 15, 2017, listed annual household income of $26,000.00, consisting of earnings from your employment. You testified, and your submitted documents show, that this amount is correct.
- 4) Your submitted paystubs showing that in 2018 you expect to receive $26,016.00 in employment income, which is calculated by adding your three submitted bi-monthly paystubs dated February 5, 2018, February 21, 2018 and March 5, 2018 in the amounts of $1,071.30, $842.20, and $1,338.50. Then dividing the total of those three paystubs ($3,252.00) by three, which results in your average bi-monthly pay of $1,084.00. When you multiply your average bi-monthly pay of $1,084.00 by 24 bi-monthly pay periods in 2018 the total 2018 expected gross income is $26,016.00 (see Appellant's Exhibit A, [REDACTED]).
- 5) You testified that you have a tuition and fees and business expense deductions, that are not included in your application. You did not provide any proof of these deductions.

- 6) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you live in [REDACTED], NY.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2018 is set by federal law at 2.01% to 9.56% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2017 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.34% and 8.1% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Business Expenses Deduction

“Adjusted gross income” is the gross income of the taxpayer minus the deductions permitted (26 USC § 62). Subject to some limitations, deductions that are attributable to a trade or business may be deductions from a taxpayer’s adjusted gross income (26 USC § 62 (a)(1)).

Tuition and Fee Deductions

Subject to some limitations, tuition and fees for a dependent’s higher education paid by the tax payer to a qualified educational institution can be deducted from adjusted gross income in an amount up to $4,000.00, provided the tax payer’s yearly income does not exceed $80,000.00 for a single individual or $160,000.00 if married filing jointly. This deduction was renewed by Congress in December 2014 and made retroactive to the 2014 tax year and extended to December 31, 2017 (26 USC § 222(e); see IRS Publication 970).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $360.00 per month in APTC.

The application that was submitted on December 15, 2017, listed an annual household income of $26,000.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you asked that your tuition and fees and business deductions, be considered when calculating your annual household income. As such, the record was held open to allow you to submit supporting documentation.

However, you did not provide any proof of these deductions.

Since you failed to submit evidence to prove these deductions, it is concluded that NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $26,000.00, based on the information provided.

According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file your 2018 income tax return as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return. Therefore, for purposes of these analyses, you are in a one-person household.

You reside in New York County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $509.30 per month.

An annual income of $26,000.00 is 215.59% of the 2017 FPL for a one-person household. At 215.59% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium in 2018 is 6.89% of income, or $149.28 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($509.30 per month) minus your expected contribution ($149.28 per month), which equals $360.02 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $360.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you were properly determined eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $26,000.00 is 215.59% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is generally provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $26,000.00 is 215.59% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the December 16, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $360.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
