Decision

Decision Date: March 15, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000026018

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $83.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your enrollment in a qualified health plan and application of advance payments of the premium tax credit were effective no earlier than February 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On December 19, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible for up to $83.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective February 1, 2018, and you enrolled into a qualified health plan.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on December 19, 2017, you spoke with NYSOH's Appeals Unit and appealed the preliminary eligibility determination insofar as your qualified health plan started as of February 1, 2018 and not December 1, 2017.

On December 20, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to $83.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective February 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions, the Essential Plan or Medicaid because your annual household income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

Also on December 20, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan with application of your APTC, both effective February 1, 2018.

On February 23, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. During the hearing, you affirmed that you were appealing the start date of your coverage, but you also stated that you would also like to appeal your eligibility determination insofar as you were not found eligible for additional financial assistance. The Hearing Officer agreed to amend the appeal to include the issue of your eligibility for financial assistance.

The record was developed during the hearing and held open until to March 12, 2017, to allow you time to submit supporting documents.

On February 23, 2018, NYSOH received your supporting documents by fax. The documents were made part of the record as Appellant's Exhibit #1 and the record was closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on December 19, 2017, listed an annual household income of $46,007.08, consisting of income you earn from your employment. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) On February 28, 2018, you faxed a copy of your 2017 federal tax return to the NYSOH's Appeals Unit (see Appellant's Exhibit #1).

- 5) You testified that, although you had medical problems in December 2017, your income remained the same as it was every month.
- 6) Using the information listed in your December 19, 2017 application, the system calculated your monthly income to be $3,833.92.
- 7) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2018 tax return.
- 8) Your application states that you live in Monroe County, NY.
- 9) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you selected a qualified health plan for enrollment on December 19, 2017.
- 10) Your enrollment in the plan with the application of your APTC became effective February 1, 2018.
- 11) You testified that you need your qualified health plan and eligibility for financial assistance to begin on December 1, 2017, because you have unpaid medical bills from December 2017 and January 2018.
- 12) You testified that you also filed the appeal because you would like to be qualified for more financial assistance with your health insurance.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

minus

2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2018 is set by federal law at 2.01% to 9.56% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

For annual household income in the range of at least 300% but less than 400% of the 2017 FPL, the expected contribution in 2018 is 9.56% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen, who is ineligible for

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Redetermination During a Benefit Year

When a redetermination is issued as a result of a change in an applicant's information, NYSOH must generally make that redetermination effective on the first day of the month following the date NYSOH is notified of the change (45 CFR § 155.330 (f)(1)(ii)). However, NYSOH may determine that its policy will be that any change made after the 15th of any month will not be effective until the first of the second following month (45 CFR § 155.330(f)(2)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

The effective date of coverage by a qualified health plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i)). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $83.00 per month in APTC.

The application that was submitted on December 19, 2017 listed an annual household income of $46,007.08, and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you expect to file your 2018 income tax return as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in Monroe County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $449.11 per month.

An annual income of $46,007.08 is 381.48% of the 2017 FPL for a one-person household. At 381.48% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium in 2018 is 9.56% of the household income, or $366.52 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($449.11 per month) minus your expected contribution ($366.52 per month), which equals $82.59 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $83.00 per month in APTC, using the information your provided in your application.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for cost-sharing reductions.

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $46,007.08 is 381.48% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is generally provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $46,007.07 is 381.48% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The fourth issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $46,700.08 is 381.48% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month.

Since there is no reliable documentation in the record indicating what your monthly income was for the month of December 2017, this decision must rely upon the system calculated monthly income. The application that was submitted on December 19, 2017, listed an annual expected income of $46,007.08, and the eligibility determination relied upon this information. Using the annual expected income, the system calculated your monthly income to be $3,833.92. Therefore, since $3,833.92 is greater than $1,387.00, you do not qualify for Medicaid based on monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since the December 20, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $83.00 per month in APTC, and ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, the Essential Plan, and Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

The fifth issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in a qualified health plan, as well as the application of your APTC, was effective no earlier than February 1, 2018.

The record shows that, on December 19, 2017, you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in a qualified health plan. On December 20, 2018, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in your qualified health plan with the application of you APTC, both effective February 1, 2018.

When an individual changes information in their application after the fifteenth of any month, NYSOH will make the redetermination that results from the change effective the first day of the second following month. Additionally, the date on which a qualified health plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

On December 19, 2017, you updated your NYSOH account and enrolled yourself into a qualified health plan, therefore, your enrollment with the application of your APTC properly took effect the first day of the second month following December 2017; that is, on February 1, 2018.

Therefore, NYSOH's December 20, 2017 plan enrollment notice is AFFIRMED because it properly began your enrollment in your qualified health plan with the application of your APTC effective February 1, 2018.
