Decision

Decision Date: March 28, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: Appeal Identification Number: AP000000026034

lssue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) or cost-sharing reductions (CSR), effective January 1, 2018?

Procedural History

According to your NYSOH account, pursuant to NYSOH's request, you submitted copies of your four most recent paystubs dated September 22, 2017 through October 27, 2017, which were validated by NYSOH on November 24, 2017 (see Documents 1999).

On November 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost. This notice stated that you were not eligible to receive APTC or CSR in part because you told NYSOH that you do not plan to file a federal income tax return.

On December 19, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination insofar as you were no longer eligible for APTC, effective January 1, 2018.

On February 22, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open to March 24, 2018, for submittal of your 2017 IRS Transcript.

As of March 24, 2018, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- According to your NYSOH account, on November 25, 2017, you were found eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost based on your submitted income documents and your application for health insurance. This was because your November 25, 2017 application stated that you do not plan to file a federal income tax return.
- 2) You testified that you do plan on filing a tax return for 2017, and possibly 2018, and that you will submit a 2017 IRS transcript and a letter attesting that you plan on filing your 2018 income tax return as proof of your intentions. You did not submit this proof.
- 4) According to your NYSOH account, you reside in Kings County, New York.

Conflicting evidence, if any, were considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit (APTC)

APTC is generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

NYSOH may authorize APTC only when it obtains certain necessary attestations from the tax filer, including an attestation that he will file an income tax return for the benefit year (45 CFR § 155.310(d)(2)(ii)(A)).

Cost-Sharing Reductions (CSR)

CSR are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for APTC, effective January 1, 2018.

According to your NYSOH account, on November 24, 2017, you were found eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost based on your submitted income documents and your tax filing status as listed in your application for health insurance. This was because your application stated that you did not plan to file a federal income tax return.

APTC is generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and, in part, expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan. NYSOH may authorize APTC only when it obtains certain necessary attestations from the tax filer, including an attestation that he will file an income tax return for the benefit year.

You testified that you do plan on filing a tax return for 2017, and possibly 2018, and that you would submit a 2017 IRS transcript and a letter attesting that you plan on filing your 2018 income tax return as proof of your intentions. However, you did not submit this proof and, as such, this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Since your November 25, 2017 application states that you do not expect to file a tax return, NYSOH properly did not approve APTC in 2018, and properly determined you eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost in 2018.

To be eligible for CSR a person must be found eligible for APTC. Since you are not eligible for APTC, you also are not eligible for cost-sharing reductions in 2018.

Therefore, NYSOH's November 25, 2017 eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost as of January 2018, was correct and is AFFIRMED.
