Decision

Decision Date: March 15, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000026062

[REDACTED]

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid for August 1, 2017 through September 30, 2017?

Procedural History

On November 11, 2017, NYSOH received an update to your application for financial assistance with health insurance, and indicated that you were seeking help for paying for medical bills for the months of August and September 2017.

On November 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the information contained in the November 11, 2017 application did not match information NYSOH received from state and federal sources. It requested that you provide additional documentation proving your income to NYSOH by November 26, 2017 so that an appropriate eligibility determination could be issued.

On December 12, 2017, NYSOH received four earnings statements issued to you by your employer, [REDACTED], between November 17, 2017 and December 8, 2017.

On December 13, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance.

On December 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were found eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective January 1, 2018.

Also on December 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice stating that your request for help with paying medical bills for September 1, 2017 through September 30, 2017 had been denied. This was because the program you are eligible for cannot pay for any care you received in the past.

On December 19, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not found eligible for retroactive Medicaid coverage during the months of August and September 2017.

On March 7, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing held open to March 9, 2018, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

As of March 9, 2018, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are seeking Medicaid from August 1, 2017 to September 30, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 federal income tax return as single, and claim no dependents.
- 3) You submitted an application for financial assistance on November 11, 2017. This application reflected that your monthly gross income during the months of August and September 2017 was $1,250.00 during each month.
- 4) On December 12, 2017, you provided to NYSOH four earnings statements issued to you by your employer, [REDACTED], reflecting that you received (1) $534.50 on November 17, 2017, (2) $368.75 on November 24, 2017, (3) $396.25 on December 1, 2017, and (4) $341.25 on December 8, 2017.

- 5) On December 13, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility based on the information contained in your NYSOH account as of December 13, 2017.
- 6) Your eligibility redetermination on December 13, 2017, stated that for the month of September 2017, your income was $1,945.40. The redetermination did not indicate what your income was during the month of August 2017. You testified that your annual household income of approximately $23,344.75 was reasonably accurate.
- 7) Your NYSOH account reflects that you do not plan on taking any deductions on your tax return.
- 8) You testified that you were seeking to be found eligible for retroactive coverage during the months of August and September 2017 because you had incurred medical expenses during that month, which were not covered.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and “consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process” (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). “De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case” (45 CFR § 155.500).

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

Retroactive Medicaid

The Department of Health must make Medicaid coverage start retroactively for up to three months prior to the month of an initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and the individual would have been eligible for Medicaid at the time he received the services if he had applied (42 USCA § 1396A(34); 42 CFR § 435.915(a)). The Department of Health may make eligibility effective for fee-for-service Medicaid on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid for August 1, 2017 through September 30, 2017.

You testified that you are appealing not only the denial of retroactive Medicaid coverage during the month of September 2017, as reflected in the December 14, 2017 eligibility determination notice, but that you were not found eligible for retroactive Medicaid coverage during the month of August 2017. The record reflects that no eligibility determination notice was issued concerning your eligibility for retroactive Medicaid coverage during the month of August 2017.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of special enrollment periods does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

You are in a one-person household; you file your taxes with a tax filing status of single and claim no dependents on your tax return.

You submitted an application for financial assistance on November 11, 2017 and requested help in paying for medical bills for August 1, 2017 through September 30, 2017.

When an individual files an initial application for Medicaid, his or her eligibility for retroactive Medicaid depends on the date of application. To this end, it does not matter if that initial application resulted in Medicaid going forward. Instead, an individual, who has filed an initial application for Medicaid through NYSOH, has the right to be evaluated for Medicaid for the three months before the month of his or her application.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Medicaid coverage can be made effective retroactively for up to three months prior to an individual's initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and if they would have been eligible for Medicaid in those three months had they applied.

You testified that you are seeking Medicaid from August 1, 2017 through September 30, 2017.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid during the months of August and September 2017, you would have needed to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. There is no indication in the record that you would have been ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial criteria during months of August and September 2017.

You testified that you are paid weekly. At the hearing, the Hearing Officer required that you provide all earning statements you received during the months of August and September 2017. As of the closing of the record on March 9, 2018, no additional income documentation was received from you. Since we did not receive any proof of your income during the months of August and September 2017, we are unable to return your case to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility for Medicaid for that period.

Therefore, the December 14, 2017 eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid in the months of August and September 2017, is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The December 14, 2017 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 15, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your eligibility has not changed.

You were not eligible for retroactive Medicaid during the months of August and September 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
