Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your enrollment in a qualified health plan, as well as the application of advance premium tax credits, was effective February 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On October 25, 2017 NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health insurance coverage, and that you needed to update your account by December 15, 2017 or you might lose your health insurance and any financial assistance you were currently receiving.

No updates were made to your account by December 15, 2017.

On November 22, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice, stating that your coverage in your qualified health plan was set to terminate, effective December 31, 2017, because you were no longer eligible for the plan. The notice also stated that you needed to log into your account and pick a plan in order for coverage to start.

On December 26, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared with regard to that application, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $210.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC). You subsequently enrolled into a qualified health plan.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on December 26, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar your financial assistance eligibility and enrollment in a qualified health plan began on February 1, 2018 and not January 1, 2018.

On December 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice, based on your December 26, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $210.00 per month in APTC. This eligibility was effective February 1, 2018.

Also on December 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, based on a plan selection made December 26, 2017, stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan with a monthly premium responsibility of $799.43 after your APTC of $210.00 was applied, effective February 1, 2018.

On February 20, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your NYSOH account indicates that you receive notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 2) You testified that you did not recall receiving any notices from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account to ensure that your coverage would not be interrupted and that your financial assistance would continue.
- 3) No notices sent to you at the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 4) You testified that you did not know you needed to renew your application until around December 27, 2017.
- 5) You testified that you updated the information in your NYSOH account at the end of December.
- 6) The record reflects that you submitted an updated application for financial assistance on December 26, 2017.

- 7) Also on December 26, 2017 you enrolled into a qualified health plan.
- 8) You testified that you had medical bills for the month of January of 2018, during which time you were not covered by health insurance through NYSOH.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Annual Eligibility Redetermination

Generally, NYSOH must conduct annual eligibility redeterminations for qualified individuals who are seeking financial assistance through insurance affordability programs for the upcoming year, such as tax credits and cost-sharing reductions, Medicaid, or Child Health Plus. In such cases, NYSOH is required to request that the qualified individual provide updated income and family size information for use in an eligibility redetermination for the upcoming year (see 45 CFR § 155.335(a) and (b)).

NYSOH must send an annual renewal notice that contains the information by which NYSOH will use to redetermine a qualified individual's projected eligibility for that year (45 CFR § 155.335(c)(3)). If a qualified individual does not respond to the notice after a 30-day period, NYSOH must redetermine that individual's eligibility using the information and projected eligibility provided in the annual renewal notice (45 CFR § 155.335(g), (h)). NYSOH must ensure this redetermination is effective on the first day of the coverage year or in accordance with the rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) regarding effective dates, whichever is later (45 CFR § 155.335(i)). The rules specified in 45 CFR § 155.330(f) are not pertinent here.

Redetermination During a Benefit Year

When an eligibility redetermination results in a change in the amount of APTC for a part of the benefit year, NYSOH must recalculate the amount of APTC in such a manner as to account for any advance payments already made (or not made) on behalf of the tax filer, such that the recalculated advance payment amount is projected to result in total advance payments for the benefit year that correspond to the tax filer's total projected premium tax credit for the overall benefit year (45 CFR § 155.330(g)).

Any change resulting from redeterminations during a benefit year should be made effective the first day of the month following the date of the notice of redetermination, except that redeterminations resulting from changes made after a date specified by the state, which can be no earlier than the 15th of the month, may not be made effective until the first day of the month after the month following the date of the notice of redetermination. (45 CFR § 155.330(f)(1) and (2)). New York has specified that changes made after the 15th of a given month will take effect the month after the following month.

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as well as your eligibility for advance premium tax credits, was effective February 1, 2018.

NYSOH must redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for health insurance and financial assistance to help pay for that health insurance annually. NYSOH must issue a renewal notice that contains the individual's projected eligibility. If an individual does not respond to this notice, NYSOH must issue an eligibility determination for the upcoming coverage year based on the information contained in the renewal notice.

On October 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an annual renewal notice in your case. That notice stated that based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether or not you would qualify for financial help with paying for your health coverage. You were asked to update the information in your account by December 15, 2017 or the financial assistance you were receiving might end.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, your eligibility for financial assistance and your enrollment in a qualified health plan was terminated effective December 31, 2017.

You testified that you did not receive any notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, the record reflects that NYSOH properly notified you of your annual renewal and that information in your NYSOH account needed to be updated in order to ensure your enrollment in your health plan and eligibility for financial assistance would continue.

The record shows that on December 26, 2017 you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in a qualified health plan.

When an individual changes information in their application after the 15th of any month, NYSOH will make the redetermination that results from the change effective the first day of the second following month. Additionally, the date on which a qualified health plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Therefore, NYSOH's December 27, 2017 eligibility redetermination and enrollment confirmation notices are AFFIRMED because they properly began your enrollment in your qualified health plan as well as your advance premium tax credits on February 1, 2018.
