Decision

Decision Date: May 8, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [redacted]
Appeal Identification Number: AP0000000026432

[redacted]

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

> Did NY State of Health properly determine that you did not qualify for Medicaid, the Essential Plan, premium tax credits, and cost sharing reductions, or to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost, as of December 12, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 11, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance to NY State of Health (NYSOH). That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were not eligible to purchase a qualified health plan through NYSOH.

Also on December 11, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the determination that you were not eligible for health coverage through NYSOH.

On December 12, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the December 11, 2017 application, stating that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH. The notice stated you did not qualify for the Essential Plan, advance payments of the premium tax credit, or to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost, because individuals with Medicare coverage cannot enroll in these programs. The notice further stated you did not qualify for Medicaid because you have Medicare and are not the parent or caretaker relative of a child under the age of nineteen. The notice stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because the household income you provided to NYSOH of $20,400.00 was over the allowable income limit of $16,643.00.

You initially had a hearing scheduled for March 15, 2018, however, this was rescheduled to April 26, 2018. On April 26, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) According to your NYSOH account, and your testimony, you are single, have no dependents and you do not expect to file a federal tax return.

2) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you are disabled, and receive $1,700.00 a month in [redacted] payments.

3) You are seeking insurance for yourself.

4) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you have been enrolled in Medicare Part A since at least January 1, 2005.

5) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you are [redacted] and your date of birth is [redacted].

6) According to your NYSOH account, you reside in [redacted].

7) You testified that you have applied for Medicaid through your Local Department of Social Services/Human Resources Administration and have been advised that you do not qualify and would need to "spend down" your assets in order to qualify.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Qualified Health Plan

It is unlawful for a person to sell or issue to an individual, entitled to benefits under Medicare Part A or enrolled under Medicare Part B, a health insurance policy with the knowledge that the policy duplicates health benefits to which the individual is otherwise entitled to be enrolled in (42 U.S. Code § 1395ss(d)(3)(A); https://www.cms.gov/Medicare/Eligibility-and-Enrollment/Medicare-and-the-Marketplace/Downloads/Medicare-Marketplace_Master_FAQ_4-28-16_v2.pdf (last updated April 28, 2016).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive advance payments of the premium tax credit, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law (NY SSL) § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

Minimum essential coverage includes most government-sponsored insurance plans such as Medicaid, Medicare, CHIP, Tricare, Veterans' Health Coverage, and eligible employer-sponsored insurance (26 USC §§ 36B(c)(2)(B) and 5000A(f)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY SSL § 366(1)(b)).

If an individual does not fall into one of these categories, he or she may still be eligible for non-MAGI-based Medicaid coverage through their Local Department of Social Services or the New York City Human Resources Administration (see NY SSL § 366(1)(c)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify for Medicaid, the Essential Plan, premium tax credits and cost sharing reductions, or to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost as of December 12, 2017.

According to your testimony and the information in your NYSOH application, you are single with no dependents and, therefore, you are not a parent or a caretaker relative of a dependent child.

The record reflects and your testimony confirmed that, when NYSOH issued the December 12, 2017 denial notice, you were eligible for and enrolled in Medicare Part A.

In order to enroll into a qualified health plan through NYSOH, an applicant cannot have duplicate coverage in Medicare. The sale or issuance of duplicate health insurance coverage to Medicare beneficiaries, including qualified health plans through NYSOH, is prohibited. NYSOH data sources reflect, and your testimony confirmed, that you have been eligible for and enrolled in Medicare Part A since at least January 1, 2005. Therefore, NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost due to having access to Medicare Part A at the time of your December 11, 2017 application.

In order to be found eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit or cost-sharing reductions, an individual must be eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan. As you were ineligible to enroll in a qualified health plan as noted above, NYSOH properly found you ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit and cost-sharing reductions.

The Essential Plan is available to individuals who are not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage. Various government-sponsored plans provide minimum essential coverage, including Part A of the Medicare program. Again, since you have been enrolled in Medicare Part A since at least January 1, 2005, NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in the Essential Plan because you are enrolled in minimum essential coverage.

Medicaid through NYSOH is available to individuals whom in relevant part, are not eligible for Medicare Parts A or B.

Since you were enrolled in Medicare Part A, NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify for Medicaid through NYSOH.

Therefore, NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible to enroll in health insurance through NYSOH. The December 12, 2017 denial notice is correct and is AFFIRMED.

The record reflects that NYSOH referred your case to the New York City Human Resources Department. You testified that you applied for Medicaid through New York City Human Resources Administration and were told that your application was denied and that you would have to spend down your assets in order to qualify.

Decision

The December 12, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 8, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are ineligible for health insurance through NYSOH.

Your case was properly referred to the New York City Human Resources Department for consideration of your eligibility for Medicaid on a different basis.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
