Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

> Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $238.15 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit and ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, the Essential Plan, and Medicaid, effective January 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On November 24, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective January 1, 2017.

Also on November 24, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation stating that you were enrolled in an Essential Plan with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2017.

On October 28, 2017, NYSOH issued a renewal notice stating that you were eligible for up to $238.15 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective January 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions, the Essential Plan, or Medicaid because your annual household income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On November 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your coverage in your Essential Plan would end on December 31, 2017. This was because you were no longer eligible for the Essential Plan.

On January 2, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that renewal notice insofar as you were not eligible for an increased amount of financial assistance.

Also on January 2, 2018, you updated your application for financial assistance.

On January 3, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the income information in your application did not match what NYSOH had received from state and federal data sources and that additional information was needed to confirm the information in your application. This notice directed you to produce proof of your household income by January 17, 2018 in order for your eligibility for financial assistance to be determined.

On January 18, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective January 1, 2018. This was because you had been granted Aid to Continue pending the outcome of your appeal.

Also on January 18, 2018, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in an Essential Plan, effective January 1, 2018.

On March 15, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of single. You will not claim any dependents on that tax return.

2) You are seeking insurance for yourself. You testified that you are seeking to be found eligible for Medicaid or the Essential Plan.

3) On October 7, 2017, NYSOH received information from state and federal data sources that your income was 290.73% of the federal poverty level. NYSOH has produced no information regarding how they determined your annual expected income for 2018.

4) On January 24, 2018, you uploaded a letter from your former employer, [redacted], stating that your last day worked was [redacted].

5) You testified that you last worked for [redacted] on December [redacted] 2016, and that you have not had employment since that time. You explained that you may have received a lingering paycheck from [redacted] in 2017.

6) You testified that you did not receive any unemployment benefits after leaving [redacted].

7) You testified that the only other income you had for 2017 was in June 2017 when you [redacted] and received approximately $1,000.00 from [redacted].

8) You testified that in 2017 and so far in 2018 you have paid for your expenses using savings.

9) You testified that you do not receive any interest payments or dividends.

10) You testified that you have not yet filed your 2017 tax return.

11) You testified that you work in entertainment and currently have no income. You went on to explain that you recently accepted a position, wherein you may expect to receive between $20.00 and $40.00 per month from [redacted], however, you have not yet started working this job.

12) You testified that you had no income in January 2018.

13) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2018 tax return.

14) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you live in Queens County.

15) Your NYSOH account reflects that on January 2, 2018, you updated your application to reflect an annual expected income of $0.00.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2018 is set by federal law at 2.01% to 9.56% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

For annual household income in the range of at least 250% but less than 300% of the 2017 FPL, the expected contribution is between 8.10% and 9.56% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive

APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2018 FPL, which is $12,140.00 for a one-person household (83 Fed. Reg. 2642).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $238.15 per month in APTC and ineligible for cost-sharing reductions, the Essential Plan, and Medicaid.

On October 7, 2017, NYSOH received information from federal and state data sources that your income was 290.73% of the FPL. NYSOH has not provided information regarding where this information was obtained from, or how your annual expected income for 2018 was calculated.

Therefore, NYSOH has provided insufficient information to ascertain whether the determination that you are eligible for up to $238.15 per month in APTC was correct.

You have provided credible testimony and documentation that as of your January 2, 2018 application, your annual expected income was $0.00.

Therefore, the October 28, 2017 renewal notice is RESCINDED insofar as you were found eligible for up to $238.15 per month in APTC. Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility as of January 1, 2018 based on a household of one, residing in Queens County, with a monthly income of $0.00.

Decision

The October 28, 2017 renewal notice is RESCINDED insofar as it found you eligible for up to $238.15 per month in APTC.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility as of January 1, 2018 based on a household of one, residing in Queens County, with a monthly income of $0.00.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 21, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This is not a final determination of your eligibility.

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility based on information provided during your hearing.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
