Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid for the month of September 2017?

Procedural History

On November 1, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On November 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the income information in your application did not match what NYSOH received from state and federal data sources. You were directed to provide proof of household income by October 28, 2017.

On November 16, 2017, you submitted proof of income.

On November 17, 2017, NYSOH verified your documentation as sufficient proof of income and an application was run on your behalf.

On November 18, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective October 1, 2017.

Also on November 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were determined eligible for retroactive Medicaid for October 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 22, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, stating that you were enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective January 1, 2018.

On December 4, 2017, you submitted additional proof of income.

On January 5, 2018, you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance and indicated that you were seeking help for paying for medical bills for September 2017. That day, a preliminary determination was prepared stating that you did not qualify for Medicaid for September 2017.

Also on January 5, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination insofar as you were denied retroactive Medicaid for the month of September 2017.

On January 6, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you remained eligible for Medicaid. This eligibility was effective as of January 1, 2018.

On January 6, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid for September 2017, because the monthly household income of $3,350.00 is over the allowable monthly income limit of $1,387.00.

On March 7, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are seeking Medicaid for September 2017.
- 2) You testified that you expect to file your 2018 federal income tax return as single, and claim no dependents.
- 3) You submitted applications for financial assistance on November 1, 2017 and January 5, 2018. In each of those applications, you requested assistance paying for medical bills for the prior three months.
- 4) Your application submitted on January 5, 2018, states that for the month of September 2017 your income was $3,350.00. You testified that amount was correct.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 5) You uploaded the following paystubs:
 - a. dated September 1, 2017 for a gross amount of $1,000.00;
 - b. dated September 11, 2017 for a gross amount of $750.00;
 - c. dated September 18, 2017 for a gross amount of $600.00; and,
 - d. dated September 25, 2017 for a gross amount of $1,000.00.

- 6) You testified that you do not plan on taking any deductions on your tax return

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

Retroactive Medicaid

The Department of Health must make Medicaid coverage start retroactively for up to three months prior to the month of an initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and the individual would have been eligible for Medicaid at the time he received the services if he had applied (42 USCA § 1396A(34); 42 CFR § 435.915(a)). The Department of Health may make eligibility effective for fee-for-service Medicaid on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid for the month of September 2017.

You are in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you file your taxes with a tax filing status of single and claim no dependent on your tax return.

You submitted applications for financial assistance on November 1, 2017 and January 5, 2018. In each of those applications, you requested assistance paying for medical bills for the prior three months.

When an individual files an initial application for Medicaid, his or her eligibility for retroactive Medicaid depends on the date of application. To this end, it does not matter whether or not that initial application resulted in Medicaid going forward. Instead, an individual, who has filed an initial application for Medicaid through NYSOH, has the right to be evaluated for Medicaid for the three months before the month of his or her application.

Medicaid coverage can be made effective retroactively for up to three months prior to an individual's initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and if they would have been eligible for Medicaid in those three months had they applied.

You testified that you are seeking Medicaid for September 2017. Based on your November 1, 2017 application, you were within the appropriate timeframe for NYSOH to determine if you were eligible for Medicaid in September 2017.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid in September 2017, you would have needed to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. There is no indication in the record that you would have been ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial criteria during September 2017.

You testified that you earned $3,350.00 in September 2017. You uploaded paystubs dated September 1, 2017 for a gross amount of $1,000.00, dated September 11, 2017 for a gross amount of $750.00, dated September 18, 2017 for a gross amount of $600.00, and dated September 25, 2017 for a gross amount of $1,000.00. Therefore, the record confirms that in the month of September 2017, you had a monthly household income of $3,350.00.

Since your income of $3,350.00 was more than the $1,387.00 monthly Medicaid limit for September 2017, NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid coverage during that month.

Therefore, the January 6, 2018 eligibility determination stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid in the month of September 2017, is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The January 6, 2018 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: April 3, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are not eligible for Medicaid in the month of September 2017.
