Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH as of January 11, 2018?

Procedural History

On January 11, 2018, NYSOH received a copy of your I-776 Employment Authorization Card reflecting a category code of "C33" (see Document [REDACTED]). This document was reviewed and verified that same day as valid proof of your immigration status.

Also on January 11, 2018, NYSOH prepared a preliminary eligibility determination finding you did not qualify for health coverage through NYSOH because verification documents showed you are not lawfully present and not eligible for Medicaid. That day, you appealed the preliminary eligibility determination insofar as you were unable to enroll in health coverage through NYSOH.

On January 12, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, consistent with the preliminary eligibility determination, stating that you do not qualify for health coverage through NYSOH because your verification documents show that you are not lawfully present, effective February 1, 2018. The notice also stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because the household income you provided was over the allowable limit for that program.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 20, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file your 2018 taxes with a status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance for yourself.
- 3) Your application states you are an immigrant non-citizen.
- 4) You uploaded a copy of your Employment Authorization card on January 11, 2018 with the status of C-33, which was verified that same day (see Document [REDACTED]).
- 5) The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals.
- 6) The application that was submitted on January 11, 2018, in which you requested financial assistance, listed annual household income of $37,442.25, consisting of income you earn from employment. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 7) You testified that your gross monthly income for January 2018 was approximately $3,040.00.
- 8) You testified that C-33 status is your only immigration status. Nothing further is pending.
- 9) According to your NYSOH account, you live in [REDACTED], New York.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid

A person who meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard is eligible for Medicaid benefits (45 CFR § 155.305(c)). One of the non-financial criteria for Medicaid eligibility is the immigration status of the person applying for health insurance. A person is eligible for Medicaid when his or her immigration status is satisfactory and he or she meets all other requirements for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your applications, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Qualified Health Plan

To enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) through the Marketplace, an applicant must be a citizen or national of the United States or a non-citizen who is lawfully present in the United States and reasonably expects to become a citizen or remain a lawfully present noncitizen for the entire period for which enrollment is being sought (45 CFR § 155.305(a)(1)).

Immigration Status

Generally, no person except a United States citizen, a naturalized citizen, a qualified alien, and persons permanently residing in the United States under color of law (PRUCOL), is eligible for medical assistance from the state (NY Soc. Serv. Law § 122(1); 18 NYCRR § 360-3.2(j)).

A PRUCOL alien is a person who is residing in the United States with the knowledge and permission or acquiescence of the federal immigration agency and whose departure from the United States such agency does not contemplate enforcing (18 NYCRR §360-3.2(j)). The New York Department of Health regards aliens who have been issued an Employment Authorization Document (I-688B or I-766), and have the requisite category code, to be PRUCOL (08 OHIP/INF-4, dated August 4, 2008)).

The guide, “Key to I-766/I-688B, Employment Authorization Documents (EADs)”, defines certain codes on the USCIS Employment Authorization Documents” (08 MA/033, dated December 1, 2008, and as amended). It confirms that a person who has category code of “(c)(33)” has PRUCOL status for Medicaid and Child Health Plus only (id.).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH as of January 11, 2018, because you are not considered lawfully present.

On January 11, 2018, NYSOH received a copy of your I-776 Employment Authorization Card reflecting a category code of “C33” (see Document [REDACTED]). This document was reviewed and verified that same day as valid proof of your immigration status.

On January 11, 2018, you updated your application for the 2018 insurance year and attested that you were an immigrant non-citizen and that you expect to earn $37,442.25 in gross annual household income in 2018.

On January 12, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not qualified to enroll in coverage through NYSOH because you are over the allowable income limit for Medicaid. Additionally, you were determined to be ineligible for other NYSOH programs because of your immigration status.

Your employment authorization documentation states you are an immigrant non-citizen with a C-33 status. The status of C-33, according to USCIS and SSA is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals. Individuals who have obtained an Employment Authorization card with the status of C-33 category are persons considered not “lawfully present” for purposes of the federal definition, and are therefore not recognized as eligible to receive federal funding under those programs.

In addition, individuals who have been determined to be qualified aliens and were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016.

This is not the case for persons who received Deferred Action status.

Therefore, NYSOH was correct in finding you not eligible for coverage through NYSOH.

However, NY State has consistently recognized persons with Deferred Action status within the accepted meaning of "PRUCOL alien"; even though the federal government has not. The New York Court of Appeals ruled, in Aliessa, et al. v. Novello (96 NY 2d 418 [2001]), that New York must provide state-funded Medicaid to the lawfully residing immigrants who had been excluded from access to the federal Medicaid program.

Since your current Deferred Action status does confer PRUCOL status for individuals seeking Medicaid eligibility, we may review whether you met the financial criteria for Medicaid.

In the January 11, 2018 application, you attested to a gross annual household income of $37,442.25 and you testified that this amount is correct. NYSOH relied on that information in determining your eligibility for Medicaid.

According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file your 2018 taxes with a status of single and you will claim no dependents on that tax return. Therefore, you are in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household.

Since $37,442.25 is 310.47% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, based on the information you provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid can also be based on current monthly household income and family size.

You credibly testified that in the month of January 2018 you earned approximately $3,040.00.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month for the first part of January 2018. Since you credibly testified that you earned approximately $3,040.00 in January 2018, you do not qualify for Medicaid based on monthly income as of the date of your application.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Finally, federal regulations require that a person seeking enrollment in a qualified health plan through the NYSOH have United States citizenship or satisfactory or immigration status. Under the federal regulations, individuals with Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals status are not considered to be lawfully present for the purposes of obtaining coverage in a qualified health plan through NYSOH.

Accordingly, the January 12, 2018 eligibility determination notice properly found you to be ineligible to enroll in a qualified health plan based on you not being lawfully present.

Additionally, your ineligibility for Medicaid is properly based on your annual household income being over the limit for that program, not your legal presence.

Therefore, the January 12, 2018 eligibility determination notice was correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The January 12, 2018 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 22, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You were properly determined to be ineligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because you are not lawfully present.

Although you qualify as a PRUCOL alien for state-based Medicaid, you were properly determined to be ineligible for Medicaid because your household income is over the maximum allowable income limit.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

Summary

The January 12, 2018 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

You were properly determined to be ineligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because you are not lawfully present.

Although you qualify as a PRUCOL alien for state-based Medicaid, you were properly determined to be ineligible for Medicaid because your household income is over the maximum allowable income limit.
