Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly terminate your child's coverage in his Child Health Plus plan for non-payment of premium, effective November 30, 2017?

Did the NYSOH properly determine that your child's enrollment in his Child Health Plus plan was effective February 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On January 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that your child was eligible for Child Health Plus (CHP), effective February 1, 2017.

Also on January 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your child's enrollment in a CHP plan as of January 13, 2017, with such coverage beginning as of February 1, 2017.

On December 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your child's enrollment in his CHP plan was terminated, effective November 30, 2017, because a premium payment had not been received by the health plan by the payment deadline.

On December 19, 2017, you contacted NYSOH and enrolled your child in a Child Health Plus plan with an enrollment start date of February 1, 2018.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On December 20, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your child's enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan as of December 19, 2017, with such coverage beginning February 1, 2018.

Also on January 18, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as your child's CHP plan was not effective as of December 1, 2017.

On April 2, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record support the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your child was enrolled in a CHP plan, effective February 1, 2017.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account, your child was disenrolled from his CHP plan as of November 30, 2017. The December 6, 2017 disenrollment notice states that your child was disenrolled because you did not pay your insurance bill to the health plan by the payment deadline.
- 3) You testified that you believed that you made a payment to the insurance carrier ahead of the due date.
- 4) You testified that you were not aware that your child had been disenrolled from his plan until after you had incurred medical expenses relating to the [REDACTED] during the month of January 2018.
- 5) According to your NYSOH account, you reenrolled your child into a CHP plan on December 19, 2017.
- 6) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, your child was without health insurance from December 1, 2017 through January 31, 2018.
- 7) You testified that you are seeking CHP coverage for your child, at least during the month of January 2018, because you have outstanding bills for medical services rendered during that month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Child Health Plus

The “period of eligibility” for Child Health Plus is “that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date,” unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage” (42 CFR § 457.340(f)).

The State of New York has provided that a child’s period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see e.g. State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your child’s CHP plan for non-payment of premium as of November 30, 2017.

On January 14, 2017, your child’s enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan was confirmed, with an effective date of February 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

You testified that you believed that you made a payment to the insurance carrier ahead of the due date. On December 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that your child was disenrolled from his CHP plan for non-payment of the premium, as of November 30, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination, and (4) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether your child was properly terminated from his CHP plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the December 6, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child's reenrollment in his CHP plan was effective February 1, 2018.

The record reflects that you contacted NYSOH on December 19, 2017, and enrolled your child into a CHP plan.

The date on which a CHP plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected between the first day and fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month and the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you enrolled your child into a plan on December 19, 2017, health insurance coverage in that plan would properly begin on the first day of the following month after December 2017; that is, as of February 1, 2018.

Therefore, the December 20, 2017 enrollment notice stating that your child's enrollment in his CHP plan was effective February 1, 2018, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the December 6, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The December 20, 2017 enrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: April 13, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This decision does not change your child's eligibility for CHP or enrollment start date.

The effective date of your child's Child Health Plus plan is February 1, 2018.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
