Decision

Decision Date: March 23, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000027605

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for retroactive Medicaid for the month of November 2017?

Procedural History

On January 19, 2018, you submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance and indicated that you were seeking help for paying for medical bills for the month of November 2017.

Also on January 19, 2018, you submitted proof of your income for the month of November 2017 (see Documents [REDACTED]).

On January 20, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive an advance payment of the premium tax credit of up to $466.00 per month and cost-sharing reductions, if you enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan. This eligibility was effective as of March 1, 2018.

Also on January 20, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid for November 1, 2017 through November 30, 2017, because the program you are eligible for cannot pay for any care you received in the past.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On January 22, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination notice insofar as you were denied retroactive Medicaid for the month of November 2017.

On March 20, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed that day.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are seeking Medicaid for the month of November 2017.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file your 2017 federal income tax return as single, and will claim no dependents.
- 3) You submitted an application for financial assistance on January 19, 2018. This application states that for the month of November 2017 your income was $1,126.30. You testified that amount may be more, but that you are certain you did not earn more than what was allowed for Medicaid in that month.
- 4) You testified that because you [REDACTED] and did not work, there were two weeks in November 2017 that you did not receive any income.
- 5) You uploaded four paystubs, dated November 3, 2017, November 10, 2017, November 17, 2017 and December 8, 2017. These paystubs show that you received $1,364.65 in employment income in November 2017 as follows:

	Gross weekly pay	Gross year-to-date (YTD)
November 3, 2017	$408.28
November 10, 2017	$545.48
November 17, 2017	$410.89	$23,582.21
December 8, 2017.	$408.00	$23,990.21

Subtract the November 17, 2017 YTD income ($23,582.21) from the December 8, 2017 YTD income ($23,990.21), equals $408.00, which is the amount reflected in the December 8, 2017 gross weekly pay and which shows there was no other income in the month of November 2017 after the November 17, 2017 paystub. As such, the three paystubs you receive in November 2017, in the amounts of $408.28, $545.48 and $410.89, equals $1,364.65.

(see Documents under [REDACTED])

- 6) According to your NYSOH account, you will not be taking any deductions off your 2017 income tax return.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

Retroactive Medicaid

The Department of Health must make Medicaid coverage start retroactively for up to three months prior to the month of an initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and the individual would have been eligible for Medicaid at the time he received the services if he had applied (42 USCA § 1396A(34); 42 CFR § 435.915(a)). The Department of Health may make eligibility effective for fee-for-service Medicaid on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid for the month of November 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file your 2017 federal income tax return as single, and will claim no dependents. Therefore, for purposes of this analysis, you are in a one-person household.

You submitted an application for financial assistance on January 19, 2017 and requested help in paying for medical bills for the month of November 2017.

When an individual files an initial application for Medicaid, his or her eligibility for retroactive Medicaid depends on the date of application. To this end, it does not matter if that initial application resulted in Medicaid going forward. Instead, an individual, who has filed an initial application for Medicaid through NYSOH, has the right to be evaluated for Medicaid for the three months before the month of his or her application.

Medicaid coverage can be made effective retroactively for up to three months prior to an individual's initial application if the individual received medical services that would have been covered under Medicaid and if they would have been eligible for Medicaid in those three months had they applied.

You testified that you are seeking Medicaid for the month of November 2017.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size. To be eligible for Medicaid in November 2017, you would have needed to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. There is no indication in the record that you would have been ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial criteria during November 2017.

You uploaded paystubs dated November 3, 2017, November 10, 2017, November 17, 2017 in the amounts of $408.28, $545.48 and $410.89, respectively. These were the only paystubs you received in the month of November 2017. Therefore, you received $1,364.65 in employment income in November 2017.

Since the January 20, 2018 eligibility determination notice found you were not eligible for Medicaid for November 1, 2017 to November 30, 2017, because the program you were eligible for cannot pay for any care you received in the past, which is no longer supported by the record, it is RESCINDED.

Since the record now contains a more accurate representation of what your income was for the month of November 2017, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to consider your request for retroactive coverage for that month based on a one-person household, utilizing 138% of the FPL for an individual, and a household income of $1,364.65, which rounded to the nearest whole dollar is $1,365.00 for the month of November 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Decision

The January 20, 2018 eligibility determination is RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to consider your request for retroactive coverage for November 2017, based on a one-person household, utilizing 138% of the FPL for an individual, and a household income of $1,365.00 for that month.

Effective Date of this Decision: March 23, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This is not a final determination of your eligibility for retroactive Medicaid for the month of November 2017. Your case is being sent back to NYSOH for a redetermination of your retroactive Medicaid coverage for November 2017. You will be notified of its redetermination.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

Summary

The January 20, 2018 eligibility determination is RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to consider your request for retroactive coverage for November 2017, based on a one-person household, utilizing 138% of the FPL for an individual, and a household income of $1,365.00 for that month.

This is not a final determination of your eligibility for retroactive Medicaid for the month of November 2017. Your case is being sent back to NYSOH for a redetermination of your retroactive Medicaid coverage for November 2017. You will be notified of its redetermination.
