Decision

Decision Date: March 15, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000027676

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for and enrollment in an Essential Plan was effective March 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On December 28, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective December 1, 2016.

NYSOH records reflect that you were subsequently enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective February 1, 2017.

On September 18, 2017, NYSOH received your application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On September 19, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, stating that you were no longer eligible for Medicaid, however, your Medicaid coverage would continue until November 30, 2017.

On September 22, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that you qualified for the Essential Plan, and that you needed to select a plan by November 15, 2017 for the next coverage year or you will not have coverage after your health coverage ended.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

No updates were received by November 15, 2017 and NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance.

On October 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your Medicaid Managed Care plan was ending, effective November 30, 2017.

On January 23, 2018, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan and you selected a plan for enrollment.

Also on January 23, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your Essential Plan, insofar as you did not have coverage for the months of December 2017, January 2018 and February 2018.

On January 24, 2018, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your selection of your Essential Plan on January 23, 2018, with a plan enrollment start date of March 1, 2018.

On March 9, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You were determined eligible for Medicaid on December 1, 2016.
- 2) You testified that you receive your notices from NYSOH by electronic alert.
- 3) You testified that you did not receive any electronic alerts regarding any notice in your NYSOH account telling you that you needed to select a health plan to continue your eligibility. You also did not receive any renewal notice by regular mail.
- 4) You testified that you did not know that you needed to select a health plan until [REDACTED] when you saw a doctor and was advised that you did not have insurance coverage.
- 5) On January 23, 2018, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.

- 6) You reenrolled into an Essential Plan on January 23, 2018.
- 7) You testified that you are seeking to have coverage in the Essential Plan backdated to at least January 1, 2018 because you have a medical bill from January 2018.
- 8) NYSOH uploaded an evidence packet to your NYSOH account. Contained within that evidence packet under the heading of “electronic notice requirement” is a three-page memorandum dated August 21, 2017. The memorandum sets forth the federal requirements regarding use of electronic communications and asserts that NYSOH complies with federal regulation and guidance on the use of electronic notices. The memorandum asserts that “the electronic notification rules do not require that exchanges track and monitor consumers actual receipt of electronic notices”.
- 9) NYSOH has submitted no evidence that an electronic alert was sent to you regarding the September 22, 2017 renewal notice.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid Renewal

In general, NYSOH must review Medicaid eligibility once every 12 months or “whenever it receives information about a change in a beneficiary’s circumstances that may affect eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(1), (d)). NYSOH must make its “redetermination of eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual’s account or other more current information available to the agency, including but not limited to information accessed through any data bases accessed by the agency” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(2)).

NYSOH must provide an individual with the annual redetermination notice, including the projected eligibility for coverage and financial assistance, and must require the qualified individual to report any changes within 30 days (45 CFR § 155.335(c), (e)). Once the 30-day period has lapsed, NYSOH must issue a redetermination as provided by the notice, with consideration given to any updates that may have been provided by the individual (45 CFR § 155.335(h)).

An individual is eligible for fee-for-service Medicaid effective on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b); Medicaid Eligibility Changes under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010,13 ADM-03(III)(F)).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Electronic Notices

Applicants may choose to receive notices and information from NYSOH either by electronic alerts or by regular mail. If the applicant elects to receive electronic notices, NYSOH must send an email or other electronic communication alerting the individual that a notice has been posted to the applicant's account (42 CFR § 600.330(e); 42 CFR § 435.918(b)(4)).

Additionally, if an electronic alert regarding a notice in an individual's NYSOH account fails, NYSOH must send out the notice by regular mail within three days of the failed alert (42 CFR § 435.918(b)(5)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective March 1, 2018.

You were originally found eligible for Medicaid, effective December 1, 2016.

Generally, NYSOH must redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for Medicaid once every 12 months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency. NYSOH's September 22, 2017 renewal notice stated that you qualified for the Essential Plan, and that you needed to select a plan by November 15, 2017 for the next coverage year or you will not have coverage after your health coverage ended.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, your Medicaid Managed Care plan coverage ended effective November 30, 2017.

However, you testified and the record reflects that you elected to receive alerts regarding notices from NYSOH electronically. Although NYSOH contends that it complied with federal mandates regarding electronic notices, there is no evidence in the file that NYSOH sent you an electronic alert notifying you of a new notice available in your account on September 22, 2017. You credibly testified that you did not receive an electronic alert regarding the renewal notice, which directed you to select a health plan to renew your coverage for the upcoming year. There is also no evidence in your account documenting that any email alert was sent to you regarding the notice, that any such electronic alert failed, or that the notice was later sent to you by regular mail.

NYSOH is required to send applicants proper notice to take appropriate action. Since there is no evidence that NYSOH sent you an email alert, and you testified that you did not receive one, there is insufficient evidence in the record that NYSOH provided you with proper notice by electronic means that you needed to update your NYSOH account to continue to receive financial assistance and health insurance through NYSOH.

You first renewed your eligibility for financial assistance through NYSOH for the upcoming coverage year on January 23, 2018, and therefore we must assume that the information you provided at that time is the information that would have been used had you been timely informed of the need to update your account, as stated in the renewal notice.

Had the information been submitted at that time, your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan would have begun on December 1, 2017.

Therefore, the January 24, 2018 notice of enrollment is MODIFIED to state that your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective December 1, 2017.
