Decision

Decision Date: April 02, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID:

Appeal Identification Number: AP00000027812

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly terminate your child's Child Health Plus plan for non-payment of premium effective, December 31, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that your child's re-enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective March 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On October 12, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your October 11, 2017 application, stating that your child was eligible for Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium, effective November 1, 2017.

Also on October 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice stating that your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with a $30.00 monthly premium, effective November 1, 2017.

On January 18, 2018, NYSOH issued a plan disenrollment notice stating that your child's enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was terminated, effective December 31, 2017, because the health plan did not receive a premium payment by the deadline.

On January 25, 2018, NYSOH received your child's updated application for health insurance and selection for plan re-enrollment. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that your child was eligible for Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium, and was re-enrolled in her Child Health Plus plan.

Also on January 25, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your child's Child Health Plus plan insofar as she did not have coverage for the months of January 2018 and February 2018.

On January 26, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that your child was eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus with a $30.00 monthly premium, effective March 1, 2018.

Also on January 26, 2018, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice stating that your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with a $30.00 monthly premium, beginning March 1, 2018.

On March 26, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing your child's disenrollment from her Fidelis Child Health Plus plan and seeking to have her coverage reinstated in that plan for the months of January 2018 and February 2018.
- 2) Your child was enrolled into a Child Health Plus plan with Fidelis Care (Fidelis), effective November 1, 2017.
- 3) You testified that you paid Fidelis your child's premiums for the months of November 2017 and December 2017, but that you inadvertently missed a payment in January 2018.
- 4) Your child was disenrolled from her Fidelis Child Health plus plan, effective December 31, 2017.
- 5) You testified that you became aware that your child had been disenrolled from her Fidelis Child Health Plus plan in January 2018, when you were with her at a medical appointment and the provider notified you that she did not have coverage.

- 6) You testified that when you became aware that your child had been disenrolled from her Child Health Plus plan you contacted Fidelis, and a broker from Fidelis assisted you with re-enrolling your child into her Child Health Plus plan.
- 7) Your child was at the time.
- 8) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, a broker from Fidelis assisted you with your January 25, 2018 application, and enrolled your child into a Fidelis plan that day.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Child Health Plus

A child who meets the eligibility requirements for Child Health Plus may be eligible to receive a subsidy payment if the child resides in a household with a household income at or below 400% of the federal poverty level (FPL) (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)(iii)).

To be eligible for Child Health Plus, the child:

- Must be under 19 years of age;
- Must be a New York State Resident;
- Must not have other health insurance coverage; and
- Must not be eligible for, or enrolled in, Medicaid

(NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)-(e)).

The "period of eligibility" for Child Health Plus is "that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date," unless the Child Health Plus premiums are not timely paid or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

"A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage" (42 CFR § 457.340(f)).

The State of New York has provided that a child's period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your child's Child Health Plus plan for non-payment of premium, effective December 31, 2017.

On November 1, 2017, your child was enrolled in a Fidelis Child Health Plus plan with a $30.00 monthly premium.

You testified that you paid your premiums to your child's Fidelis Child Health plus plan for the months of November 2017 and December 2017, but you inadvertently missed a payment in January 2018.

On January 18, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that your child was disenrolled from her Fidelis Child Health Plus plan for non-payment of premiums, effective December 31, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not your child was properly terminated from her Fidelis Child Health Plus plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the January 18, 2018 plan disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

However, Fidelis may be able to help you with your request for coverage for the months of January 2018 and February 2018. If you have not already been assisted with this issue, please contact Fidelis directly.

In addition, since your issue concerns a health insurer and/or payment, reimbursement, coverage, benefits, rates and premiums, you can contact NY Department of Financial Services at their Consumer Hotline at (800) 342-3736 (Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM); or locally to (212) 480-6400; or you can file a complaint at http://www.dfs.ny.gov/consumer/fileacomplaint.htm

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child's reenrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective March 1, 2018.

You contacted NYSOH on January 25, 2018, to re-enroll your child into her Child Health Plus plan.

The date on which a Child Health Plus plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected between the first day and fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month and the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you contacted NYSOH to re-enroll your child into a Child Health Plus plan on January 25, 2018, her re-enrollment would properly take effect the first day of the second month after January 2018; that is, on March 1, 2018.

Therefore, the January 26, 2018 plan enrollment notice stating that your child's re-enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective March 1, 2018, is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the insurer's termination of your child's enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan for non-payment of premiums, effective December 31, 2017, is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The January 26, 2018 plan enrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: April 02, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This decision does not change your child's eligibility for Child Health Plus or enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan.

Your child's re-enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective March 1, 2018.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
