Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH as of January 5, 2018?

Procedural History

On January 2, 2018, you submitted an updated application for financial assistance with health insurance.

Also on January 2, 2018, NYSOH received a copy of your I-776 Employment Authorization Card reflecting a category code of "C-33" and valid from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED]

Also on January 2, 2018, you submitted four weekly earnings statements for December 2017.

On January 3, 2018, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your January 2, 2018 plan selection, stating that you were enrolled in an Essential Plan 1 Plus Vision and Dental with monthly premium of $47.90, with plan enrollment start date of February 1, 2018.

Also on January 3, 2017 NYSOH reviewed and verified the immigration and income documents you submitted on January 2, 2018.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On January 4, 2018, your application was updated by NYSOH based on the immigration and income documentation that was verified on January 3, 2018 and your eligibility was redetermined.

On January 5, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on NYSOH updated January 4, 2018 application that was submitted on your behalf. The notice stated that effective February 1, 2018, you did not qualify for health coverage through NYSOH. You were not eligible for Medicaid because your income of $23,205.00 was over the allowable income limit for that program. The notice also stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan, to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance, or to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost. This was because your “verification documents show not lawfully present.”

Also on January 5, 2018, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Essential Plan 1 Plus Dental and Vision ends February 1, 2018. This was because you were no longer eligible to enroll in health insurance through NYSOH.

On January 25, 2018, you contacted NYSOH’s Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of the January 5, 2018 eligibility determination insofar as you were not eligible for health insurance due to your immigration status.

On April 6, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH’s Appeals Unit. Spanish interpreter # [REDACTED] provided interpretation services. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) The record reflects that you expect to file your 2018 taxes with a status of single and you will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) Your application states you are an immigrant non-citizen.
- 4) You uploaded a copy of your Employment Authorization card on January 2, 2018 with the status of C-33, showing it was valid from [REDACTED] through [REDACTED]. NYSOH verified this information on January 3, 2018.

- 5) The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services and Social Security Administration is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals.
- 6) The application that was submitted on January 2, 2018, which requested financial assistance, listed annual household income of $23,205.00, consisting of income you earn from employment. You testified that this amount was correct at the time.
- 7) According to your NYSOH account, on January 2, 2018 you submitted four earning statements for December 2017 for your employment at the [REDACTED]. Those statements reflect pay dates of December 8, 2017, December 15, 2017, December 22, 2017 and December 29, 2017. Those earnings statements all showed gross earnings of $446.25 per week. The December 29, 2017 statement showed year-to-date earnings of $24,872.52.
- 8) You testified that you have been steadily employed at the [REDACTED] for several years.
- 9) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you live in Suffolk County.
- 10) You testified that you want to be eligible for health insurance.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

Qualified Immigrants Transitioned to the Essential Plan

In New York State, qualified immigrants who were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 19, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>). This category of qualified immigrants includes individuals lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States who are still in their first five years of permanent residency (18 NYCRR § 349.3, 8 USC § 1613).

Medicaid

A person who meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard is eligible for Medicaid benefits (45 CFR § 155.305(c)). One of the non-financial criteria for Medicaid eligibility is the immigration status of the person applying for health insurance. A person is eligible for Medicaid when his or her immigration status is satisfactory and he or she meets all other requirements for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your January 2, 2018 application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Qualified Health Plan

To enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, an applicant must be a citizen or national of the United States or a non-citizen who is lawfully present in the United States and reasonably expects to become a citizen or remain a lawfully present noncitizen for the entire period for which enrollment is being sought (45 CFR § 155.305(a)(1)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable FPL, (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Immigration Status

Generally, no person except a United States citizen, a naturalized citizen, a qualified alien, and persons permanently residing in the United States under color of law (PRUCOL), is eligible for medical assistance from the state (NY Soc. Serv. Law § 122(1); 18 NYCRR § 360-3.2(j)).

A PRUCOL alien is a person who is residing in the United States with the knowledge and permission or acquiescence of the federal immigration agency and whose departure from the United States such agency does not contemplate enforcing (18 NYCRR §360-3.2(j)). The New York Department of Health regards aliens who have been issued an Employment Authorization Document (I-688B or I-766), and have the requisite category code, to be PRUCOL (08 OHIP/INF-4, dated August 4, 2008)).

The guide, “Key to I-766/I-688B, Employment Authorization Documents (EADs)”, defines certain codes on the USCIS Employment Authorization Documents” (08 MA/033, dated December 1, 2008, and as amended). It confirms that a person who has category code of “(c)(33)” has PRUCOL status for Medicaid and Child Health Plus only (id.).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH as of January 5, 2018.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On January 2, 2018, you submitted an updated application to NYSOH, which included your I-766 Employment Authorization Card number and reflected that you are an immigrant non-citizen. On January 2, 2018 you submitted a copy of your Employment Authorization Card indicating your status of C-33, and that was valid from [REDACTED] through [REDACTED]. NYSOH verified this information on January 3, 2018 and confirmed that you have a C-33 status. That January 2, 2018 application listed an annual household income of $23,205.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

As a result, of the January 2, 2018 application, and the information that was verified on January 3, 2018, on January 5, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were not qualified to enroll in coverage through NYSOH because the documentation you provided showed that you were not lawfully present. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because your household income of $23,205.00 was over the allowable income limit for that program.

Your employment authorization documentation states you are an immigrant non-citizen with a C-33 status. The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services and Social Security Administration is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals. Individuals who have obtained an Employment Authorization card with the status of C-33 category are persons considered not "lawfully present" for purposes of the federal definition, and are therefore not recognized as eligible to receive federal funding under those programs.

In addition, while individuals who have been determined to be qualified aliens and were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016, this is not the case for persons who received Deferred Action status.

Therefore, NYSOH was correct in finding you not eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan.

Additionally, federal regulations require that a person seeking enrollment in a qualified health plan through NYSOH have United States citizenship or satisfactory or immigration status. Under the federal regulations, individuals with Deferred Action for Childhood arrivals status are not considered to be lawfully present for the purposes of obtaining coverage in a qualified health plan through NYSOH. Therefore, NYSOH properly found you ineligible to enroll in a qualified health plan.

In order to be found eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit or cost-sharing reductions, and individual must be eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan. As you are ineligible to enroll in a qualified health plan for 2018 for the reasons noted above, NYSOH properly found you ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit and cost-sharing reductions.

Accordingly, the January 5, 2018 eligibility determination notice properly found you to be ineligible to enroll in a qualified health plan, ineligible for APTC and cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan based on you not being considered lawfully present.

However, NY State has consistently recognized persons with Deferred Action status within the accepted meaning of “PRUCOL alien”; even though the federal government has not. The New York Court of Appeals ruled, in Aliessa, et al. v. Novello (96 NY 2d 418 [2001]), that New York must provide state-funded Medicaid to the lawfully residing immigrants who had been excluded from access to the federal Medicaid program.

Since your current Deferred Action status does confer PRUCOL status for individuals seeking Medicaid eligibility, we may review whether you met the financial criteria for Medicaid.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2018 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your applications, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $23,205.00 is 192.41% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid can also be based on current monthly household income and family size.

You testified that you have been steadily employed at the [REDACTED] for several years. You testified that you are paid every week. The four weekly earnings statements you provided for the month of December 2017 indicate you are paid $446.25 every week. The December 29, 2017 statement indicated your year-to-date earnings was $24,872.52. The system calculated that your monthly income, based on a $23,205.00 a year, would be $1,933.75. As the record reflects that you are steadily employed and earn $446.25 every week, there is nothing to indicate that your earnings for January 2018 were any different from previous months.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since the evidence in the record indicates that you regularly earned $1,933.75 per month, you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your January 2, 2018 application.

As NYSOH properly found you ineligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance, or to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost because you are not considered lawfully present, and ineligible for Medicaid as your income is over the allowable income limit for that program, the January 5, 2018 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The January 5, 2018 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: April 20, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are not eligible for the Essential Plan, to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance, or to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost because you are not lawfully present.

Although you qualify as a PRUCOL alien for state-based Medicaid, you are not eligible for Medicaid at this time, because your household income is over the maximum allowable income limit.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
