Decision

Decision Date: May 31, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000027970

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your child's eligibility for and enrollment in his Child Health Plus plan were effective March 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On January 18, 2018, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your January 17, 2018 application, stating that your child was eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus with a $0.00 monthly premium, effective March 1, 2018.

Also on January 18, 2018, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice, based on the plan selection on January 17, 2018, stating that your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan, and that his enrollment in the plan would start March 1, 2018.

On January 29, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your child's Child Health Plus plan insofar as it did not begin February 1, 2018.

On March 26, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing only your child's eligibility.
- 2) Your child's date of birth is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
- 3) According to your NYSOH account, on January 12, 2018, you contacted a certified application counselor to assist you in submitting an application for financial assistance with your child's health insurance.
- 4) According to your NYSOH account on January 12, 2018 and on January 13, 2018 the certified application counselor attempted to initiate an application for financial assistance but an account could not be created due to "Identity Proofing Fail."
- 5) You testified that you provided identification papers to the certified application counselor on Sunday January 14, 2018.
- 6) It is judicially noted that Monday January 15, 2018 was a New York State legal holiday for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.
- 7) According to your NYSOH account, on January 16, 2018, NYSOH verified your identity and your account was activated.
- 8) According to your NYSOH account, on January 17, 2018, your certified application counselor submitted a completed application for financial assistance with health insurance for your child and your child was determined eligible for Child Health Plus, effective March 1, 2018.
- 9) According to your NYSOH account, your certified application counselor enrolled your child into a Child Health Plus plan on January 17, 2018.
- 10) You testified that you need your child's Child Health Plus plan to begin on February 1, 2018 because he [REDACTED] and needed [REDACTED] treatment in February 2018.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Child Health Plus

The “period of eligibility” for Child Health Plus is “that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date,” unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage” (42 CFR § 457.340(f)).

The State of New York has provided that a child’s period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see e.g. State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Child Health Plus – Newborns

A newborn child who is eligible for Child Health Plus shall be enrolled retroactively to the first day of the month in which the child is born, provided that the applicant submitted a completed application and required information and documentation within sixty days of the child’s birth (NY Public Health Law §2511(2)(i)(i), effective January 1, 2017).

Legal Analysis

The issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child’s eligibility for and enrollment in his Child Health Plus plan was effective March 1, 2018.

The record reflects that you initially contacted a certified application counselor on January 12, 2018. At that time, an account could not be created due to failure of identity proof. You testified that you provided the certified application counselor with the necessary identity papers on Sunday January 14, 2018. It is judicially noted that Monday, January 15, 2018 was a New York State legal holiday. On January 16, 2018, NYSOH verified your identity and your account was activated. On January 17, 2018, your certified application counselor submitted an application for financial assistance with health insurance for your child, and your child was determined eligible for Child Health Plus, effective March 1, 2018. Your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan on January 17, 2018, with a plan enrollment start date of March 1, 2018.

In the case of newborns born after January 1, 2017, the newborn will be enrolled retroactively to the first day of the month in which the child was born, provided that the applicant submits a completed application and required information and documentation within 60 days of the child's birth.

The record reflects that your child was born on [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Sixty days from that date is [REDACTED]. The application for health insurance for your child was submitted on Jan 17, 2018, which is more than 60 days from the child's birth. Therefore, your child is not eligible for retroactive enrollment in his Child Health Plus plan.

The date on which a Child Health Plus plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected between the first day and fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month and the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

As we are constrained by the applicable laws and regulations, the record reflects that your child's Child Health Plus plan was selected on January 17, 2018; his Child Health Plus plan properly began on the first day of the second month following January 2018; that is, on March 1, 2018.

Therefore, the January 18, 2018 eligibility determination notice and the January 18, 2018 plan enrollment notice are AFFIRMED as they properly began your child's eligibility for Child Health Plus and enrollment in his Child Health Plus plan as of March 1, 2018.

Decision

The January 18, 2018 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

The January 18, 2018 plan enrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 31, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

This decision does not change your child's eligibility.

Your child's eligibility for Child Health Plus and enrollment in his Child Health Plus plan properly began on March 1, 2018.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
