Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $181.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective March 1, 2018?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On October 21, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective October 1, 2016. This was because your household income of $31,108.00 was at or below the allowable income limit for that program.

Also on October 21, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan as of December 1, 2016.

On December 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage, and that you needed to update your account by January 18, 2018 or you were at risk of losing your health insurance coverage and, if applicable, any financial assistance.

On January 20, 2018, NYSOH issued a discontinuance notice stating that you were not eligible for Medicaid, Child Health Plus, or to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance. You also could not enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost. This was because you had not responded to the renewal notice and had not completed your renewal within the required time frame. Your eligibility ended January 31, 2018.

On January 21, 2018, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your Medicaid Managed Care plan would end on January 31, 2018.

On January 30, 2018, you updated your application for health insurance and financial assistance through NYSOH.

On January 31, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive up to $181.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) as well as cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, both effective March 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your annual household income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

Also on January 31, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

On February 27, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were eligible for Medicaid for a limited time, effective February 1, 2018. This was because you had been granted Aid to Continue pending the outcome of your appeal.

On February 27, 2018, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective February 1, 2018.

On April 19, 2018, you were scheduled for a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. You requested that day that the hearing be adjourned to a later date.

On April 20, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Under oath, you waived your right to formal notice of the hearing. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are seeking to be found eligible for the Essential Plan, and that you are only appealing with regard to your coverage, not your children's.
- 2) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of head of household. You will claim three dependents on that tax return.
- 3) The application that was submitted on January 30, 2018 listed annual household income of $55,000.00, consisting of wages you earn from your employment. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2018 tax return.
- 5) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you live in [REDACTED].

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2018 is set by federal law at 2.01% to 9.56% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $24,600.00 for a four-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2017 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.34% and 8.10% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $24,600.00 for a four-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

"Adjusted gross income" means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (id.).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $181.00 per month in APTC.

The application that was submitted on January 30, 2018 listed an annual household income of $55,000.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You expect to file your 2018 income tax return as head of household and will claim three dependents on that tax return. Therefore, you are in a four-person household.

You reside in New York County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $509.30 per month.

An annual income of $55,000.00 is 223.58% of the 2017 FPL for a four-person household. At 223.58% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 7.17% of income, or $328.62 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($509.30 per month) minus your expected contribution ($328.62 per month), which equals $180.68 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $181.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly determined eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $55,000.00 is 223.58% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is generally provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $24,600.00 for a four-person household. Since an annual household income of $55,000.00 is 223.58% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the January 31, 2018 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $181.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The January 31, 2018 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: April 25, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You remain eligible for up to $181.00 in APTC.

You are eligible for cost-sharing reductions.

You are ineligible for the Essential Plan.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
