Decision

Decision Date: May 15, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000028343

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your adult child were eligible to share in up to $613.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective March 1, 2018?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your adult child were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your adult child were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On February 2, 2018, you applied for health insurance and financial assistance through NYSOH.

That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you and your adult child (child) were eligible to share in up to $613.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and cost-sharing reductions, effective March 1, 2018.

Also on February 2, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that preliminary eligibility determination notice insofar as you and your child were not eligible for an increased amount of financial assistance.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On February 3, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, consistent with the preliminary eligibility determination, stating that you and your child were eligible to share in up to $613.00 in APTC for a limited time, as well as cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, both effective March 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you and your child were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your annual household income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

On February 3, 2018, a plan enrollment notice was issued confirming your and your child's enrollment in a silver-level qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2018.

On April 20, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open to May 5, 2018, to allow you time to submit supporting documents.

As of May 5, 2018, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of head of household.
- 2) The application that was submitted on February 2, 2018, states that you will claim one dependent on that tax return. You testified this is incorrect and that you plan to claim 4 dependents on your tax return.
- 3) You are seeking insurance for yourself and your child.
- 4) The application that was submitted on February 2, 2018 listed annual household income of $39,063.66, consisting of $39,468.00 you earn from your employment less a student loan interest deduction of $404.34. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 5) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you will not be taking any other deductions on your 2018 tax return.
- 6) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you and your child live in [REDACTED], NY.

- 7) You testified that you have bills including rent, cable, and car payment that you think should be deducted from your household income.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (id.).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer’s coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2018 is set by federal law at 2.01% to 9.56% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2017 FPL, the expected contribution in 2018 is between 6.34% and 8.1% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your child were eligible to share in up to $613.00 per month in APTC.

The application that was submitted on February 2, 2018 listed an annual household income of $39,064.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you testified that you have bills including rent, cable, and car payment that you think should be deducted from your household income.

Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses such as rent, utilities, cable, and phone to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $39,064.00.

According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of head of household. You testified that you plan on claiming four dependents on that tax return. However, because you provided no proof of this, it is determined that you will claim one dependent on your 2018 income tax return, as is stated in your application. As such, for purposes of these analyses, you and your child are in a two-person household.

You and your child reside in Kings County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for a primary subscriber and one-dependent through NYSOH costs $865.81 per month.

An annual income of $39,064.00 is 240.54% of the 2017 FPL for a two-person household. At 240.54% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium in 2018 is 7.78% of income, or $253.26 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for a primary subscriber and one-dependent in your county ($865.81 per month) minus your expected contribution ($253.26 per month), which equals $612.55 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you and your child to be eligible to share in up to $613.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you and your child were properly determined eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $39,064.00 is 240.54% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you and your child to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you and your child were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is generally provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,240.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $39,064.00 is 240.54% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you and your child to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the February 3, 2018 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you and your child were eligible to share in up to $613.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
