Decision

Decision Date: May 11, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: Appeal Identification Number: AP000000028387

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible for a full-cost qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On February 1, 2018, a NYSOH representative submitted an application on your behalf for financial assistance with your health insurance through NYSOH.

On February 2, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective March 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, cost-sharing reductions, the Essential Plan, or Medicaid because your annual household income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On February 5, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not eligible for any financial assistance.

On April 24, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance with financial assistance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on February 1, 2018, listed an annual household income of $56,182.00, consisting of $14,544.00 you earn from your with with with the second second
- 4) You testified that you were not sure what the additional income amount of $45,268.00 in business income amount was based on. You did provide NYSOH a copy of your 2016 individual tax return in which your adjusted gross income was $41,638.00 after $3,630.00 in deductions were applied (see Documents)
- 5) You testified your 2016 tax return was not reflective of your current projected income for 2018 because your hours were reduced over the past three years.
- 6) You testified, and provided documentation showing, that you receive a monthly income from you with with a second for January 2018 in the amount of $1,043.25, February 2018 in the amount of $2,190.83, and March 2018 in the amount of $1,388.33 (see Documents
- 7) Your application states that you live in , NY.
- 8) According to your NYSOH account, you were enrolled in an Essential Plan 1 for the month of April 2018.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

 the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2018 is set by federal law at 2.01% to 9.56% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3, IRS Rev. Proc. 2017-36).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On the date of your application, that was the 2018 FPL, which is $12,140.00 for a one-person household (83 Fed. Reg. 2642).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014). Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

"Adjusted gross income" means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of finds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (id.).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were eligible for a full cost qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2018.

You are in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you expect to file your 2018 income tax return as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

The application that was submitted on February 1, 2018, listed an annual household income of $56,182.00, consisting of $14,544.00 you earn from your with sectors and $45,268.00 you earn in business income. This amount was decreased by $432.00 in moving expenses, and $3,198.00 in self-employment tax deductions. The determination relied on this information.

You testified that this amount was not correct and you were not sure why the additional income amount of $45,268.00 in business income was included in your application. You did provide NYSOH a copy of your 2016 individual tax return in which shows your adjusted gross income was $41,638.00 after $3,630.00 in deductions were applied (see Documents However, you testified that your 2016 tax return was not reflective of your current projected income for 2018 because your hours were reduced over the past three years.

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income, which is adjusted gross income increased by any income that was excluded for United States citizens or residents living abroad, tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income. Adjusted gross income means gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions. The NYSOH representative that submitted the application on your behalf incorrectly included an income amount of $14,544.00 from your employer and your contracting income from that same position in the amount of $45,268.00. The inclusion of this additional income amount was in error.

Therefore, the February 2, 2018 eligibility determination notice stating you were eligible for a full cost qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2018 is not supported by the record and is RESCINDED.

You provided income documentation showing you receive a monthly income from your contracting position with Sector You provided invoice statements showing check dates in January 2018 in the amount of $1,043.25, February 2018 in the amount of $2,190.83, and March 2018 in the amount of $1,388.33 (see Documents Sector These last three-monthly amounts averaged and carried over a twelve-month period would equal an annual expected income of $18,489.64.

Therefore, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility for health insurance for 2018, using a one-person household and an annual household income of $18,489.64, for an individual residing in Queens County. Since you were enrolled in an Essential Plan from April 1, 2018 through April 30, 2018, the effective date of this determination will be May 1, 2018. You may choose to enroll in a health plan based on your redetermined eligibility as of May 1, 2018, or within 60 days of this decision.

Decision

The February 2, 2018 eligibility determination notice is RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility for health insurance for 2018, using a one-person household and an annual household income of $18,489.64, for an individual residing in Queens County.
