Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective March 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On January 31, 2018, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On February 1, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $553.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective March 1, 2018.

On February 7, 2018, you attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan but were unable to select a plan for enrollment.

Also on February 7, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On February 8, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $553.00 per month in APTC, effective March 1, 2018. It further stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2018.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On April 4, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. During the hearing, you gave permission for the Hearing Officer to listen to recordings of telephone calls you had with NYSOH. The record was developed during the hearing and open until April 19, 2018, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

On April 10, 2018, NYSOH received your supporting documents by fax/upload. The documents were incorporated into the record as Appellant's Exhibit #1, the telephone recordings were reviewed, and the record was closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, on January 31, 2018, you contacted NYSOH by telephone and submitted an application for health insurance with the assistance of a NYSOH representative, but you did not select a health plan for enrollment at that time.
- 2) You testified that you did not enroll yourself or your spouse in a plan that day because the NYSOH representative assisting you advised you to research health plans before selecting a plan for enrollment, but he did not tell you that the deadline to select a plan was that same day.
- 3) You testified that, as a result, you researched health plans and attempted to enroll yourself and your spouse into a plan on February 7, 2018, but were not able to do so because it was outside the open enrollment period.
- 4) You testified that you would have selected a plan for yourself and your spouse on January 31, 2018, if the NYSOH representative advised you that it was the last day to do so.
- 5) The NYSOH Appeals Unit reviewed the recording of January 31, 2018 telephone call between you and a NYSOH representative. During that call, the NYSOH representative advised you to research health plans but did not advise you that you needed to select a plan that day.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a QHP and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2018, the national annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2017 and extended through December 15, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(3)). NY State extended this enrollment period through January 31, 2018 for applications processed through NYSOH (https://www.health.ny.gov/press/releases/2017/2017-09-07_open_enrollment_dates.htm).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective March 1, 2018.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2017 until January 31, 2018. On January 31, 2018 you submitted an application for health insurance, but did not select a plan for enrollment. On February 7, 2018, you attempted to enroll yourself and your spouse into a qualified health plan. On February 8, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

You testified that, on January 31, 2018, you spoke to a representative from NYSOH over the telephone who advised you to research health plans before selecting one, but did not tell you that January 31, 2018 was the last day to do so. A review of the telephone conversation placed that day corroborates your testimony. You further testified that you would have selected a plan for yourself and your spouse that day, if the NYSOH representative advised you that it was the last day to do so.

Since the record indicates that your non-enrollment into a qualified health plan was the result of an omission by a representative of NYSOH, you should have been granted a special enrollment period as of your February 7, 2018 application.

Therefore, NYSOH's February 8, 2018 eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to reflect that you and your spouse are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your February 7, 2018 application.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you and your spouse in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You and your spouse may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of February 7, 2018 because NYSOH gave you incorrect information. In the alternative, you and your spouse may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.

Effective Date of this Decision: April 19, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

NYSOH improperly denied you and your spouse a special enrollment period.

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to allow you and your spouse to enroll into coverage as of February 7, 2018, if you so choose. In the alternative, you and your spouse may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.

You and your spouse will be responsible for any premium payments for any months you are enrolled into coverage.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.
