Decision

Decision Date: May 3, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000029265

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective March 1, 2018?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

According to your NY State of Health (NYSOH) account, in March 2017, you were determined eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2017, and enrolled into a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective April 1, 2017.

On January 3, 2018, NYSOH issued a renewal/eligibility determination notice stating that it was time for you to renew your health insurance coverage through NYSOH. The notice further stated that, based on state and federal data sources, you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective March 1, 2018. The notice also stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because state and federal data sources show that your annual household income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

On January 31, 2018, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective March 1, 2018.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On February 23, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that renewal/eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not found eligible for Medicaid.

On March 7, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, for a limited time, effective March 1, 2018. This was because you had been granted Aid to Continue pending the outcome of your appeal.

Also on March 7, 2018, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective March 1, 2018.

On April 26, 2018, you had a scheduled telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. That day you requested that the hearing be adjourned, which was granted.

On April 27, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with [REDACTED] Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Under oath, you waived your right to timely notice of the adjourned telephone hearing. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was run on your behalf, on January 2, 2018 indicated that, based on stated and federal data sources, your annual expected income for 2018 was between $18,090.00 and $24,120.00.
- 4) You testified that you have been working since January 2018 and expect to continue working at this place of employment for the remainder of the year.
- 5) You testified that you are paid biweekly.
- 6) You testified that your gross income every two weeks is approximately $1,442.00.
- 7) You testified that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2018 tax return.

- 8) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED], NY.
- 9) You testified that you have bills including which include rent, transportation costs, and other living expenses that you think should be deducted from your household income.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid Renewal

In general, NYSOH must review Medicaid eligibility once every twelve months or “whenever it receives information about a change in a beneficiary’s circumstances that may affect eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(1), (d)). NYSOH must make its “redetermination of eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual’s account or other more current information available to the agency, including but not limited to information accessed through any data bases accessed by the agency” (42 CFR § 435.916(a)(2)).

NYSOH must provide an individual with the annual redetermination notice, including the projected eligibility for coverage and financial assistance, and must require the qualified individual to report any changes within 30 days (45 CFR § 155.335(c), (e)). Once the 30-day period has lapsed, NYSOH must issue a redetermination as provided by the notice, with consideration given to any updates provided by the individual (45 CFR § 155.335(h)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage; therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3)

Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (id.).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective March 1, 2018.

The record indicates that you were determined eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2017, and enrolled into a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective April 1, 2017. Therefore, you were eligible for Medicaid for 12 months from March 1, 2017 through February 28, 2018.

NYSOH must redetermine a qualified individual's eligibility for health insurance and financial assistance to help pay for that health insurance annually. NYSOH must issue a renewal notice that contains the individual's projected eligibility. If an individual does not respond to this notice, NYSOH must issue an eligibility determination for the upcoming coverage year based on the information contained in the renewal notice.

On January 3, 2018, NYSOH issued a renewal/eligibility determination notice stating that, based on federal and state data sources, you were found eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective March 1, 2018.

The application that was submitted on your behalf on January 2, 2018, indicated that state and federal data sources showed that your annual expected income was between $18,090.00 and $24,120.00 and the January 3, 2018 renewal/eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you expect to file your 2018 income tax return as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

The Essential Plan is generally provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of between $18,090.00 and $25,120.00 is 150% to 200% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan, based on state and federal data sources.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of between $18,090.00 and $25,120.00 is 150% to 200% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, based on state and federal data sources.

Since the January 3, 2018 renewal/eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the state and federal data sources, you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan and ineligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

However, during the hearing, you testified that you make on average $1,442.00 every two weeks. You further testified that you have been working since January 2018 and expect to continue working at this place of employment for the remainder of the year. As a result, using your biweekly income, your annual expected income is approximately $37,492.00.

During the hearing, you also asked that your current expenses, which include rent, transportation costs, and other living expenses, be considered when calculating your annual household income. Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow for such living expenses to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for determining your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance.

Now that the record contains a more accurate representation of what your 2018 expected annual income will be, and since it differs from what NYSOH received from state and federal data sources, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility, as of the date of this Decision, using a one-person household with an annual expected income of $37,492.00, for an individual residing in [REDACTED], New York, and to notify you accordingly.

Decision

The January 3, 2018 renewal/eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED. Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility, as of the date of this Decision, using a one-person household with an annual expected income of $37,492.00, for an individual residing in [REDACTED], New York, and to notify you accordingly.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 3, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, based on state and federal data sources.

NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid, based on state and federal data sources.

This is not a final determination of your eligibility.

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to redetermine your eligibility, as of the date of this Decision, based on the testimony you provided during the hearing and the parameters noted above. NYSOH will notify you of its redetermination of your eligibility.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This
