Decision

Decision Date: May 30, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000029497

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective April 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On February 27, 2018, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed being verbally denied a special enrollment period.

On March 14, 2018, an application was submitted to NYSOH for health insurance.

On March 15, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating in part that you did not qualify to select a health plan outside the open enrollment period for 2018.

On May 1, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open to May 16, 2018, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

On May 4, 2018, NYSOH received a four-page fax with your supporting documentation, which was made part of the record as Appellant's Exhibit 1. The record was closed that day.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On February 27, 2018, you first contacted NYSOH and were denied a special enrollment period.
- 2) On March 14, 2018, you submitted a completed application for health insurance.
- 3) On February 27, 2018 and March 14, 2018, you attempted to enroll in a qualified health plan but were denied.
- 4) Your March 14, 2018 application states that you are seeking a special enrollment based on losing health insurance coverage on December 31, 2017.
- 5) You testified that you lost prior health insurance coverage through your employer on December 31, 2017. You testified this was because you did not meet the minimum 30 hours a week required to be eligible.
- 6) You testified that since filing your request for appeal you were reinstated in your employer-sponsored insurance as of March 1, 2018.
- 7) You provided supporting documentation showing you have coverage with [REDACTED] starting January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018 (see [REDACTED]).
- 8) You testified that since filing your March 14, 2018 application, there have been no other major changes to your household.
- 9) You testified that you did not rely on any statements made by NYSOH that prevented you in enrolling in a qualified health plan sooner.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a QHP and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2018, the national annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2017 and extended through December 15, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(3)). NY State extended this enrollment period through January 31, 2018 for applications processed through NYSOH (https://www.health.ny.gov/press/releases/2017/2017-09-07_open_enrollment_dates.htm).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)
 - (i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective April 1, 2018.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2017 and extended this enrollment period through January 31, 2018, for applications processed through NYSOH.

On March 14, 2018, you submitted a completed application for health insurance and requested to enroll in a qualified health plan. On March 15, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

You testified that your previous insurance coverage through your employer ended on December 31, 2017. Loss of insurance coverage outside of NYSOH is considered a triggering life event.

When a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual has 60 days from the date of that event to select a qualified health plan.

Since 60 days from December 31, 2017 is March 1, 2018, you would have qualified to select a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period until March 1, 2018. The record reflects that, on February 27, 2018, you contacted NYSOH and were denied a special enrollment period verbally without any application being submitted on your behalf. Therefore, you contacted NYSOH before the end of your 60-day period on March 1, 2018, to select a qualified health plan.

The Hearing Officer requested that you provide information regarding your employer-sponsored insurance. You provided documentation showing that you have active employer-sponsored insurance, which began January 1, 2018 and continues until December 31, 2018 with [REDACTED] (see [REDACTED]). Therefore, based on the documentation you provided, your insurance coverage through your employer was reinstated as of January 1, 2018, such that you did not lose insurance with your employer as of December 31, 2017. Furthermore, you are currently enrolled in your employer-sponsored insurance as of the date of your hearing. Therefore, you do not qualify to enroll in health insurance through NYSOH because you have minimum essential health insurance outside NYSOH. Further, the basis for your appeal to get a special enrollment period is no longer at issue.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2018 is rendered MOOT.

Decision

The March 15, 2018 eligibility determination notice to the extent that you were denied a special enrollment period is rendered MOOT.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 30, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time because you have employer-sponsored insurance.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
