Decision

Decision Date: May 15, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000030092

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective April 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On November 17, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in qualified health plan at full cost, effective January 1, 2017.

On October 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming coverage year. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for health insurance coverage and that you needed to update your account by December 15, 2017 or you might lose your health insurance coverage.

No updates were made to your account by December 15, 2017.

On November 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your qualified health plan coverage would end on December 31, 2017 because you were no longer eligible to enroll in that plan. The notice also stated that you were sent a separate notice about your eligibility.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 12, 2018, you updated your non-financial assistance application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective April 1, 2018. You also attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan but were unable to.

Also on March 12, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On March 13, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2018 and that if you qualified for a Special Enrollment Period, you would be eligible to purchase a qualified health plan, effective April 1, 2018.

On May 9, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. During the hearing, you waived your right to timely written notice of the hearing date and time. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified and the record reflects that you had been enrolled in qualified health plans through NYSOH since the beginning 2014 coverage year, and that you have neither applied for nor received financial assistance in paying for that coverage.
- 2) The record further reflects that you had not been required to update your application to maintain your enrollments for the 2016 or 2017 coverage years.
- 3) You testified, and the record reflects, that you receive all of your notices from NYSOH by electronic mail. You confirmed that your correct email address is [REDACTED]
- 4) You testified that you did not receive any electronic alerts regarding a renewal notice in your NYSOH account telling you that you needed to update your application by December 15, 2017 in order to renew your eligibility for 2018 coverage.
- 5) The November 21, 2017 disenrollment notice stating that your coverage would end on December 31, 2017 also stated that you were sent a separate notice about your eligibility. The record reflects that no such eligibility determination notice was issued for your account.

- 6) You testified that you did not know your coverage had ended until you saw your doctor in February of 2018.
- 7) The record reflects that, on March 12, 2018, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.
- 8) NYSOH uploaded an evidence packet to your NYSOH account. Contained within that evidence packet under the heading of “electronic notice requirement” is a three-page memorandum dated August 21, 2017. The memorandum sets forth the federal requirements regarding use of electronic communications and asserts that NYSOH is in compliance with federal regulation and guidance on the use of electronic notices. The memorandum asserts that “the electronic notification rules do not require that exchanges track and monitor consumers actual receipt of electronic notices.”
- 9) NYSOH has submitted no evidence that an electronic alert was sent to you regarding the October 17, 2017 renewal notice.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Electronic Notices

If the individual elects electronic communications, NYSOH must send an email or other electronic communication alerting the individual that a notice has been posted to his or her account and send a notice by regular mail within three business days if the electronic communication cannot be delivered (45 CFR § 155.230(d); 42 CFR § 435.918(b)(4), (5)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a QHP and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2018, the national annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2017 and extended through December 15, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(3)). NY State extended this enrollment period through January 31, 2018 for applications processed through NYSOH

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective April 1, 2018.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period for the 2018 coverage year from November 1, 2017 until January 31, 2018. On March 12, 2018, you submitted an application for health insurance and requested to enroll in a qualified health plan. On March 13, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

On October 17, 2017, NYSOH issued an annual renewal notice in your case. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether or not you qualify to enroll in coverage. You were asked to update the information in your account by December 15, 2017 or your insurance coverage might end.

Because there was no timely response to this notice, your enrollment in your qualified health plan was terminated effective December 31, 2017.

However, you testified and the record reflects that you elected to receive electronic alerts regarding notices from NYSOH about your account. Although NYSOH contends that it complied with federal mandates regarding electronic notices, there is no evidence in the file that NYSOH sent you an electronic alert notifying you of a new notice available in your account on October 17, 2017. You credibly testified that you did not receive an electronic alert regarding the renewal notice, which directed you to update your account because there was not enough information to renew your coverage for the upcoming year. There is also no evidence in your account documenting that any email alert was sent to you regarding the notice, that any such electronic alert failed, or that the notice was later sent to you by regular mail.

NYSOH is required to send applicants proper notice in order for applicants to take appropriate action. Since there is no evidence that NYSOH sent you an email alert, and you testified that you did not receive one, there is insufficient evidence in the record that NYSOH provided you with proper notice by electronic means that you needed to update your NYSOH account in order to continue your health insurance enrollment through NYSOH.

Since NYSOH failed to provide you with sufficient notice that you needed to update your application by December 15, 2018, and this error resulted in your non-enrollment in 2018 coverage, you are eligible for a special enrollment period from the date of your March 12, 2018 application.

Therefore, the March 13, 2018 eligibility determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2018 is MODIFIED to reflect that you are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your March 12, 2018 application.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of April 1, 2018. In the alternative, you may elect to enroll in coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.
